TRIO ARRESTED IN $2,500,000 MAIL ROBBERY

DECLARES COLONEL WAS SENT TO 26th DIV. TO "GET" N. G. OFFICERS

Damaging Testimony Given at Washington Hearing by Col. Charles A. Stevens of Lowell—Asserts That Duncan K. Major, Former Chief of Staff of Yankee Division, Was Sneering, Suspicious, Domineering and Brutal

Testimony of Col. Charles A. Stevens of Lowell, former adjutant of the 26th (Yankee) Division, yesterday was the outstanding feature of the hearing before the senate committee on military affairs in Washington, regarding the fitness of Duncan K. Major for promotion from the rank of lieutenant-colonel to a full colonelcy. During the war Major was chief of staff of the Yankee Division. The Lowell officer's testimony was held to be particularly damaging to Lieut. Col. Major.

Col. Stevens declared as a witness that Major de Boissieuval of the French army had told him in France that Major had told him that he had been sent to the 26th Division to "get" national guard officers of that outfit.

LLOYD GEORGE CALLS MEETING TO CONSIDER REPLY TO RUSSIA

Document Will Contain Not Only What Is Asked of the Russians, But Also What the Allies Are Ready to Offer Them

GENOA, April 27.—(By Associated Press) Prime Minister Lloyd George today invited Foreign Minister Schanzer of Italy; Vice Premier Barthou of France and Foreign Minister Jasper of Belgium to meet him at the Villa de Albertini to reach an understanding over the document to be addressed to the Russians in reply to the Russian counter proposals.

This document will contain not only what is asked of the Russians but also what the allies are ready to offer them.

The sub-commission on Russian affairs will meet Friday to discuss this document and approve it in its final form.

Mr. Lloyd George's address was being discussed today with absorbed interest in conference circles. Meanwhile the juridical experts of the various powers were applying their best efforts to an attempt to frame the non-

CHAIN OF ACCIDENTS BLIND AND DEAF GIRL CAN READ AND HEAR

Follows Attempt of Man to End Life by Gas in Cellar of Boston Home

BOSTON, April 27.—When Franklin Denton, crawled under the cellar of the Volunteers of America Home today, turned on two gas jets and then lay down to die, he started a chain of accidents that sent several persons besides himself to the hospital.

Someone in the home smelled the gas and a search revealed Denton huddled in the cellar. He had left a note asking forgiveness for his act. A police ambulance was summoned. In turning a corner, the ambulance crashed into a motor truck, injuring Michael C. Rose and John B. Maynard so severely that they were taken to a hospital. The impact of the collision sent the police ambulance skidding down the street, and the three patrolmen who were escorting Denton received bruises that required treatment.

Meanwhile, Denton, still unconscious, was hurried to a hospital in a passing automobile. It was said that he would probably recover.

SNEAK THIEVES ACTIVE AT HIGH SCHOOL

In the April number of the High School Review, one today, there is a vigorous editorial deploring a condition that has existed in the school for some time past, whereby articles of clothing and personal effects disappear from coat rooms and desks, presumably in the hands of those who are not true to the traditions of the school and who know little of the ethics of honest relationships.

The editorial is so well arranged, and it is of such serious moment, that it is produced herewith.

Last month our critic said that one of the greatest of crimes committed

DOG WITH RABIES BIT POLICEMAN

Officer Frank Murphy of the police motorcycle detail is undergoing a rather severe ailment on account of a dog capture a short time ago.

A week ago last Sunday Officer Murphy was sent out to round up a dog which was cutting up in a certain district in Lowell, and succeeded in capturing the dog and bringing it in. In the process, however, he received a bite on the back of one of his hands. Dr. Sherman stated the dog was sent to the head of the division of animal industry of the state health department, and the officer had his hand cauterized and felt that all was at an end, so far as the dog was concerned.

Today, however, a report has been received from the state house, announcing that the dog was afflicted with rabies, and the officer is doing a great amount of worrying as to the possibility of his own infection.

DEPARTMENTS FUNCTION WELL

Only Nine Out of 73 City Appropriations Are Being Expended Too Fast

School Department Expenditures Per Month $16,500 Less Than Average Allowed

During the months of January, February and March out of the 73 separate city appropriations, only nine departments have failed to live within the amounts provided, based on an average 1-12 monthly expenditure, or in other words, in only nine instances has there been excess expenditures over the average monthly expenditure allowed by the 1922 appropriations.

The departments that have exceeded 1-12 of the total are: Charitable, outdoor relief, charity, mothers with dependent children; isolation hospital, insurance, mayor, sewer maintenance, soldiers' benefits, street maintenance and workmen's compensation.

The greatest excess expenditure is found in the appropriation for soldiers' benefits, amounting to $624.31. Street maintenance has exceeded its average by $112.60 for the three months and sewer maintenance shows over-expenditures of $492.07 during the same period.

Perhaps the most notable instance of retrenchment is found in the school department, where it was felt by many that the estimates had been too deeply cut. In this department the monthly expenditures for January, February and March were less than the 1-12 proportion by $16,500.87 each month. Street lighting, water works, buildings, Chelmsford Street hospital, fire, parks, police and board of health office are other departments that have operated well within the average.

ROBBER ARRESTED HERE WANTED ELSEWHERE

Chief of Police John J. Sullivan of Pittsburgh has sent a warrant for breaking and entering in that city against William J. Sternberg in the local police, accompanied by a letter requesting that the warrant be sent after him to whatever prison in which he is confined.

Chief Sullivan's action is due to the fact that when Sternberg was captured here in the act of robbing an office in the Donovan building and brought to the station a letterhead from a hotel in Pittsburgh was found in his possession. He confessed that he had made breaks in that city, and the local authorities at once got in touch with Chief Sullivan, informing him of the facts.

A similar warrant is expected from Concord, N. H., where several breaks have been reported recently, and ascribed to marauding hogs. The police of that city are said to have concluded that Sternberg was the responsible party.

UP TO ARCHITECT AND CONTRACTOR

At a time during the creation of the new high school when the market price of construction and furnishing materials dropped considerably, the high school building commission found that it could use better quality of flooring, etc., than was called for in the plans as finally approved without increasing the cost and therefore, went ahead and made the changes.

Commissioner P. L. Walker then submitted to the commission a proposition whereby he should receive 10 per cent on all such extra work being done by sub-contractors. The commission discussed it and finally presented the question to the city solicitor for an opinion.

Today Solicitor Tierney made public the opinion, which puts the settlement of the question fairly up to the architect and contractor to agree upon a reasonable value of these extras. If they cannot come to an agreement, a board of arbitration must be named as provided for in the contract; the board to consist of three members, one selected by the commission, one by the contractor and these two to select a third. A majority decision of this board would be binding and final and any expenses incurred by such a board would be equally shared by the contractor and the city.

Determined to Keep Communications Open Between Peking and Sea

Measures for Protection of American and Other Foreign Interests Expedited

PEKING, April 27.—(By Associated Press)—Measures for protection of American and other foreign interests here are being expedited in view of hostilities between the forces of Gen. Tso-Lin and Wu Pei-Fu.

Train service to the coast is irregular and the legations are prepared to order seizure of the railroad to keep it in operation, should serious interference develop. It is stated that an allied fleet will land troops, if necessary, to keep communications open between Peking and the sea, in compliance with the protocol of 1901.

One hundred and seventy-five blue-jackets and marines are expected to arrive today to reinforce the guard of the American legation. The men are from the United States cruiser Albany, which was ordered north from Shanghai and tents have been erected for them in the American compound in the legation quarter.

The Albany will join the Huron, flagship of the United States Asiatic fleet off China. Wang Tao, north of Tien Tsin. The British and French legations also have requested that warships be sent to Chinese waters.

The military activities of the opposing generals continue. Wu has concentrated 25,000 men at Pootung, the capital of Chihli province and Chang has 30,000 soldiers along the railroad from Peking to the sea.

COMMUNISTS PLAN MAY DAY OBSERVANCE

Proclamations signed by the executive committee of the communist party of America, J. Davis, executive secretary, announcing the usual May Day observance as International Labor Day, are being circulated in this city and a copy has reached police headquarters. An investigation will be made immediately in an effort to learn the identity of the local agent or agents.

The party's slogan "Down with Capitalism! Long Live the International Solidarity of the Working Class!" is conspicuously set forth at the end of the proclamation.

LOWELL DYE WORKS WINS SUPERIOR COURT CASE

CHILD HIT BY AUTO IS IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Lillian Belliste, aged 5 years, daughter of Leon Belliste of Pawtucket, R. I., is in a serious condition at the Lowell Commonwealth hospital, as a result of an automobile accident, which occurred on the boulevard last evening. The little girl is suffering from a fractured skull.

The accident occurred in the early part of the evening at a point near the Belliste home. According to reports, Lillian was in the act of crossing the road with a younger sister, when an automobile operated by Harry Osgood of 166 Concord street, Manchester, N. H., came along and struck Lillian. She was knocked down and rendered unconscious. She was hurried to the hospital.

Osgood, according to the police is not a licensed chauffeur, and was learning how to drive the car when the accident occurred. His instructor was James Backett, a licensed chauffeur of 25 Appleton street, Manchester, who, although sitting on the front seat with Osgood, was unable to prevent the accident.

UNITED TEXTILE WORKERS OPEN RECRUITING CAMPAIGN

Rally in Trades and Labor Council Hall This Afternoon—Mrs. Mary Kelleher, General Organizer for the United Textile Workers, Is Principal Speaker

The first rally in the recruiting campaign under the auspices of the United Textile Workers of America in an endeavor to organize the Lowell operatives 100 per cent was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Trades & Labor hall, Central street, and the principal speaker was Mrs. Mary Kelleher of Scranton, Pa., a general organizer for the U.T.W.

Despite the fact that a large number of the striking operatives of this city went to Lawrence to attend the open air rally on the common conducted by President Thomas F. McMahon, there was a fair attendance at the meeting, which was presided over by President John Hanley of the Lowell Textile council.

Mrs. Kelleher spoke of the benefits to be derived from the U.T.W., and urged those present to enroll under the banner of their respective crafts. She spoke at length on the textile strikes throughout New England and brought out in a forceful manner the necessity of organizing so as to meet attempts to reduce wages or to increase working hours.

According to present arrangements there will be open rallies for textile workers of this city every Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons until further notice and the speakers will be provided by the United Textile Workers of America.

Today was pay day for the weavers who are out on strike and Mrs. Annie Reagan, treasurer of the Lowell Textile council, was kept busy handing out pay envelopes. Several young women connected with the local strike will go to Clinton tomorrow, where they will take up collections for the Lowell strikers. Four others are doing similar work in North Adams.

Three Arrested by Postal Inspectors in Connection With Big Mail Robbery

NEW YORK, April 27.—Louis and Jack Wolfe and Jacob B. Price were arrested by postal inspectors today in connection with the $2,500,000 mail truck robbery perpetrated in lower Broadway on Oct. 24, 1921. Some of the stolen securities, valued at $75,000, were recovered.

Two Dying After Fight at Leominster

FITCHBURG, April 27.—Wallace Hewey, a railroad worker, is in a dangerous condition in Leominster hospital from self-inflicted revolver wounds and John P. Catches, who, it is alleged, Hewey attempted to kill early today, is in Burbank hospital with a punctured left lung. Leominster police are at Hewey's bedside with a warrant charging him with attempted murder. The fight occurred in Leominster at the home of Mrs. Hewey, from whom her husband, naming Catches as correspondent, had obtained a divorce and on whom Catches was calling. Catches conducts a fruit store here.

General Alarm Fire at Cambridge

CAMBRIDGE, April 27.—A general alarm was sounded early today for a fire that started in the plant of Whittemore Brothers Corporation, makers of shoe polish, in the heart of the manufacturing district and in the rear of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology buildings. Firemen were obliged to fight the blaze with ladders because water had no effect on the flaming materials in the mixing room, to which the fire was confined. The damage was estimated at $75,000.

Harding Joins Newspaper Golf Club

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The Washington newspaper golf club recently organized by golf playing correspondents in the capital, today received a formal application for membership from Warren G. Harding, "representing the Marion Star and mail address the White House." Enclosed with the application were three new $1 bills in payment of club dues for as many years. "I hope," he added, "to be able to show some of the younger fellows how to make a good score." In answer to the question on the application as to what club the applicant belonged, Mr. Harding wrote: "Probably all of them."

HUNT IN VAIN FOR MURDERER

Police Continue Search for Slayer of Ticket Agent Without Success

Man Seen Running Into Woods, Run Down, Proves to Be Woodchuck Hunter

For a few minutes last night the police thought they were on a red hot trail to the murderer of Ralph W. Brewster at Winchester, Mass., a week ago. A gang of men working on the road saw a young man run breathlessly out of the woods. Then, apparently upon seeing them, he ran back. Sheriff W. R. Emerson was notified. Search was made, and men deployed into the woods. The fugitive was run down and the sheriff found that Everett Dwyer, a young man well known in the town, had been pursuing a woodchuck with his dog.

CONVICTS REVOLT IN CALCUTTA JAIL

30 Make Break for Gates—Guards Open Fire Killing Several Men

Few of the Prisoners Succeeded in Escaping Over the Walls

CALCUTTA, April 27.—(By Associated Press)—Discontent over alleged favored treatment of political prisoners is believed to have been at the bottom of yesterday's convict revolt in the jail here, when a break for the gates was made by about 300 of the men, several of whom were killed when fired upon by the guards. A few of the prisoners succeeded in escaping over the walls.

The discontent came to a head when one of the wardens, it is alleged, struck a Mohammedan prisoner for insubordination.

Definite figures on the casualties are not yet obtainable.

Says Colonel Was to "Get" N. G. Officers

and in substantiation produced the original statement by the French officer in which the remark was made. The Lowell man asserted that at one time Col. Major had shaken his fist in his face when he had refused to comply with an order issued by the chief-of-staff that did not carry the approval words, "By command of Major General Clarence H. Edwards," and that Col. Major's attitude toward enlisted men was sneering, suspicious, domineering and brutal, and that he was heartily despised by officers and men of the division, including officers of the regular army and national guard officers.

Wm. Barnes, San Antonio, Texas, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar has been worth $50.00 a bottle to me. I had 'the flu,' followed by pneumonia, which left me weak, with a persistent cough. The cough hung on. Some one advised Foley's Honey and Tar. I have completely recovered and do not cough at all."

He alleged that Col. Major was particularly hostile to national guard officers. He said that it was his duty to provide him with stenographers and orderlies, and that the men came to him repeatedly and begged him to relieve them. They begged him to be sent to Col. Major's office, because of the constant abuse, he testified. Col. Stevens added that he saw Col. Logan in Troyon, France, in September, 1918, and told him to watch out Col. Major and told him that he would get him. Logan replied: "That's not true. Only a few days ago I talked with Col. Major and he told me that the inspection just made by the Inspector-general A. E. F. showed my regiment to be the best regiment in the 26th Division. He expressed personal and official thanks for the assistance I had given him on the nights of July 23-24." Col. Stevens replied: "Perhaps you know Major better than I do. He's out to get you. Watch out."

When Col. Stevens was asked if Col. Major had ever shown any personal dislike to the national guard officers, he said: "Yes." He told how Major de Bolrouve, who had been with the 26th Division for more than a year, had said that Col. Major had told him, the French major, that he had been sent to the division to get rid of national guard officers. On cross-examination Col. Stevens produced the statement in writing from the French major in corroboration of his testimony.

Col. Hunt asked Col. Stevens if he had ever received a letter of commendation from Col. Major. Col. Stevens replied that he had had such a letter and produced it, in which Col. Major praised him in the highest terms for the zeal and capacity of the Massachusetts colonel. When Col. Stevens by their olive color. 15c and 30c.—Adv was asked what his business was, he replied that he was in the wool business. He said Congressman John J. Rogers had offered him the position of postmaster at Lowell, but he had had no intention of entering politics.

He asked if he might make a statement, and on receiving permission said that the only reason he was a member of the delegation from Massachusetts was the firm belief that Duncan H. Major was incompetent and he felt it his duty to appear before the committee and so testify.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you 90 per cent. of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known to his patients for years. 15c and 30c.—Adv

Great Refund Offer

Lowell People Who Are Weak, Sickly, Nervous Or Run Down

IMPORTANT NOTICE!—By special arrangement, we can now extend to any person in Lowell who wants more strength, energy and endurance, the opportunity of using Nuxated Iron so that if you do not get all and even greater benefits than you expect, it will not cost you one cent, because we ourselves will promptly return your money.

You may wonder how we can afford to do this. The answer is that week after week a large number of Lowell people come into our store for Nuxated Iron; throughout the country over four million people use it annually. Blood examinations by physicians all over the country show that an enormous number of people do not have enough iron in their blood. Without iron the blood becomes thin, pale and watery. In many cases this so seriously weakens the vital organs that people often believe they have heart or stomach trouble, kidney diseases, nerve force exhaustion or some other serious ailment. They have pains and palpitation of the heart, sudden dizziness, faintness or spots before the eyes, when as a matter of fact the trouble is all due to lack of iron in the blood, and when iron is supplied, all of these symptoms disappear.

Genuine Nuxated Iron contains true organic iron like the iron in your blood. So many people are deficient in iron who would surely be benefited by this remarkable remedy that we recommend that you come right to Green's Drug Store and get a regular $1.10 bottle for 75c, use it for two weeks and note the improvement in your own case. You are the judge—if you do not get all and even greater benefits than you expect, just bring back the wrapper and we will promptly refund the full amount you paid.—Adv.

Baldy of Nome Dies!

BY GENE COHN
BERKELEY, Cal., April 27.—Baldy of Nome has crossed the trail's end, but he has left behind a sermon for men to read and heed; he has left an epic of dogdom.

In the Northland code of Baldy and his clan were written large these traits: stalwart courage, unswerving purpose, eternal faithfulness and pride of clan. His code knew no defeat but death, and so the most famous of Alaskan sled dogs is finally beaten.

They have buried him under a rose bush in the yard of his sled driver, "Scotty" Allen. Over the little mound of freshly turned earth they have hung Baldy's service flag with its 26 stars; a star for each of the shaggy sons he sent to the great war.

Only a dog—yet the news that he has gone on his last mush has traveled from the white silence of the Arctic, that once was his home, to the Swiss Alps, where the survivors of his line live on pension of the French government.

Baldy's Exploits
Only a dog—yet, when his driver fell in Alaskan snows during a race he had the heart and brains to stop, avenge in his track and lift to the sled the injured man.

No other dog had ever been able to lead his team in seven successive races across the 418-mile course of the Alaskan sweepstakes.

The madhouse puppy pet of a small boy, he was sold into the dog racing stables of Darling & Allen, once of Nome, to become the greatest sled dog of all time.

After his victories his owners brought him here. His fame traveled far and when the war came Lieut. Rene Haas of the French army traveled 10,000 miles to get for war service sons of Baldy's line.

From the Alps came some months later the story of how a dog team, after climbing precipitous mountains with munitions, came into camp without a driver. A German bullet had found the soldier. But the dog leader knew that it was his duty to carry on and reach the isolated regiment. Where did they find such a dog? A son of Baldy's of Nome, of course!

It was Baldy that Jack London used as the composite type of his dog heroes, and one day a tombstone is to be placed over Baldy's grave and on it will be inscribed these lines from a poem written to him by Esther Hirsall Darling:

BALDY

"My eyes grow dim, but I seem to see The wastes where the Arctic winds blow free
They say when the breath of a dog is gone
That he and the clay of his grave are one;
A lie, I say, for there is no end
So long as he lives in the heart of a friend."

The estimated cost of smoke to the people of one large American industrial city is $10,000,000 a year, the items including the enormous waste from imperfect combustion, increased laundry bills, the expense of additional painting and cleaning, and the added cost of artificial lighting.

hours, both sides using rifles and machine guns. Two were killed and six others wounded.

Various houses have been commandeered by the regulars, or provisional government troops who are reported to have launched an attack on the irregulars. Great excitement prevails.

The fighting began at 5 a. m., and ended about 7 o'clock. The regulars captured and disarmed a lorry load of republicans.

The buildings bear evidence of the fray and the merchants refuse to open their stores, fearing a recurrence of the trouble. The republicans are still holding the police barracks.

Civil War Vets Pay Tribute to Grant

SARATOGA SPRINGS, W. Va., April 27.—A little group of Civil war veterans—some of whom stood guard in 1885 over the body of their dead general, U. S. Grant, gathered at Mount McGregor today to pay tribute to their old leader in the little cottage on the summit of the mountain where Gen. Grant died. The program was arranged by the six survivors of the detail of 60 members of the Post Wheeler, G. A. R. who were assigned as a guard at the mountain after Gen. Grant's death.

Unknown Men Fire on Train in Italy

ROME, April 27.—(By Associated Press)—Unknown men fired on a train near Florence today, the shots penetrating a window near which the minister of works was sitting. No one was injured. Other disorders are reported from Florence.

Ex-Capt. Sullivan of Boston Police Dead

BOSTON, April 27.—James P. Sullivan, who, until his resignation recently had been captain of police in the most important section of this city for years, died at Dennisport, today. He had gone there to rest after turning in his badge when ordered from Station 2 to night duty at police headquarters. Captain Sullivan was 64 years old.

Action Against Will of Bispham Dismissed

NEW YORK, April 27.—Surrogate Foley today dismissed the action against the will of David Bispham, famous baritone, brought by his widow and daughter, ruling that the plaintiffs had failed to prove that Bispham had been unduly influenced by Mrs. Henrietta M. Ten Eyck. The contested will bequeathed to Mrs. Ten Eyck, one-fourth of a $100,000 trust fund Bispham had inherited from his father and all of his own estate. Mrs. Bispham and her daughter were left the remainder of the trust fund.

Attorney Leahey Disbarred

BOSTON, April 27.—Supreme Court Justice Jenney today ordered an entry disbar Attorney John P. Leahey because of alleged misappropriation of funds belonging to the heirs of Patrick Lennox of Lynn, a leather manufacturer for whom Leahey was counsel in bankruptcy proceedings several years ago. The disbarment petition was filed by the Boston Bar Association.

Flee Before Flood Waters

Tonics of the government fleet here, hastened to the affected territory for flood relief work and arrangements were being made to care for all refugees arriving here.

houla parishes today the only means of communication was by boat. Practically all of the two parishes are covered with water, also large tracts in Tennessee, Franklin and Avoyelles parishes, which comprise a rich farming area devoted largely to cotton.

Practically all livestock in the threatened area had been removed. One hundred former service men of the Natchez Post of the American Legion erected tents today for the refugees.

Break at Poydras

NEW ORLEANS, April 27.—A break in the Mississippi river levee at Poydras, about 10 miles south of New Orleans was reported today. A section of the levee about 100 feet long gave way, the report said, and approximately 350 families were fleeing before the waters.

Dead and Missing Total 49
FORT WORTH, Tex. April 27.—

Trinity river was well within its banks this morning, the gauge showing a drop of 16 feet overnight and now registering 17 feet. Street car service was restored this morning to all flooded suburbs. The dead and missing list is now 49.

aggression pact, advocated by the British prime minister. As for the prime minister's address, it is generally regarded as an effort on his part to take a far-sighted view of the political destinies of Europe. On the other hand, France, with her comparatively small population, desires guarantees, while the lesser states are deeply concerned for their future security.

Draw Up Reply

GENOA, April 27.—(By the Associated Press.) The representatives of the big and little ententes and Portugal expected to have before them in final form today the statement to be presented to the Russian delegates in answer to their counter propositions for the economic restoration of Russia which the allies found unacceptable. This statement is being drawn up primarily to satisfy England, France and Belgium, who are the heaviest creditors of Russia. In their answer to the allies, the Russians appear to have made no reference whatever to the war debts which the allies said they were ready to "scale down."

In the English text of the allies' proposal, the phrase was "in view of the serious economic conditions in Russia, the creditor governments are prepared to write down the war debts owing by Russia to them." The Russians apparently interpreted the words "write down" to mean "write off"—in other words, complete cancellation. They, therefore, ignored the war debts in their rejoinder. What the attitude of the powers will be on this question has not been made clear.

Meanwhile the Genoa conference has developed plainly into one of the most important political world conclaves in history by reason of the momentous problems which have come to the surface since its inauguration.

A note of gravity was added to the situation by Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain in an address last night to the American and British press correspondents in which he uttered the warning that a new political crisis was confronting Europe.

NOW DO MY WORK WITH EASE

Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored My Health

Hornell, N. Y.—

"I was in bad health but there didn't seem to be any one thing the matter with me. I was tired out all over and it was an effort for me to move. I was irritable and could not sleep nights and had trouble with my bowels and at my periods. It seemed that nearly every one around me knew of your medicine and wanted me to try it, so at last I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and improved every day. I do all my own work now except the washing and do it with ease. I can accomplish as much in a day now as it would have taken me a week to do last winter and I try to get every one I know to take your medicine to build them up. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial if you like."—Mrs. CHAS. BAKER, 21 Spencer Ave., Hornell, N. Y.

In almost every neighborhood there are women who know of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They know because they have taken it and have been helped. Why don't you give it a trial?

Wilfred Perry, Export

Tool Maker, Tells How Sanatol Relieved Him

Suffered from Stomach for 6 Months

Mr. Wilfred Perry of Saylesville, Great Road, Rhode Island, is a young man who has spent nine years of his life at his present residence. He is an extremely skilled tool maker and his work is very trying on eyes and head as well as body.

"I had been working very steadily and very hard and almost before I knew it my stomach went back on me. I became constipated, had severe headaches, suffered greatly from gas in the stomach. My blood became very weak and my liver was all out of condition so that my eyes became dull and my complexion very yellow. I suffered greatly from heartburn, my appetite was poor and I was growing almost too weak to work. I tried several medicines that were recommended to me, but without result.

"Then a friend gave me a very little Sanatol. I could feel some effect from a few doses, so I purchased a regular bottle and then another one and by the time I had taken the two I was perfectly fit. However, to be sure, I started on a third bottle, but took only a small part of it. "My blood, stomach and all other organs were soon working right. My complexion cleared up, appetite returned and I was again perfectly fit for work or play.

"I have recommended Sanatol to a number of friends who have been helped by it and I wish that everybody who has any such trouble as I had would take it."

KID WEDGE GOES BACK TO ARIZONA HOME

BOSTON, April 27.—Frederick R. "Kid" Wedge, whose arrival at Harvard last winter caused so much interest until he was finally admitted as a student in the Graduate School of Education, has left Cambridge for his home in Arizona because of illness. Wedge will be remembered as the famous prize fighter and lumber jack who, after being a "changer on" in a lumber camp in Wisconsin and regarded as a social outcast, redeemed himself when more than 30 years of age and rose to attain a university degree and the principalship of a high school.

It was learned late last night that Wedge was leaving for his home, where a wife and family await him, because he felt that he has waged a losing fight so far in one respect. While a roustabout in Wisconsin, he weakened his system so that consumption set in.

AGED COUPLE VICTIMS OF STRANGE POISON

NEW YORK, April 27.—A strange poison, so mild that it probably would not have killed younger persons, and so unusual that its nature will have to be determined by chemical analysis, caused the death of Fremont M. Jackson, 75, and his 70-year-old wife, Annie, whose bodies were found in their hotel apartment in Brooklyn yesterday.

This was the report issued today by Drs. Charles Wuest and Dr. Karl Boettcher, assistant medical examiners, who conducted an autopsy. The unknown poison, they reported, was so mild that it did not even irritate the linings of the victims' stomachs.

Mr. Jackson, a retired carpet manufacturer, and Mrs. Jackson, who was his childhood sweetheart, and whom he married a year ago, came to the hotel from Palm Beach about two months ago. Both had been married and widowed before they met after a long separation and decided to patch up their early romance.

Dr. Wuest's theory was that the aged people ended their lives in a suicide pact. This was scouted by relatives and friends, however, who asserted they appeared happy and had no financial or other worries that might have caused them to see death.

EARNINGS OF $10,785,312
NEW YORK, April 27.—Net earnings of $10,785,312 for 1921 as compared with $35,550,415 in 1920, are shown in the annual report of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation, made public today.

STRAUS SUSPENDED
NEW YORK, April 27.—Jack O. Straus, board member of the New York stock exchange firm of J. O. Straus, has been suspended from the exchange for one year. It was announced today. No explanation was offered.

TO EXTRACT GASOLINE
SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—C. P. Rowie, petroleum engineer attached to the United States bureau of mines here, announced today secret experiments conducted for three years have revealed a process for extracting gasoline from asphaltum, oil shale, oil waste, tar and tar with "below grade" oil.

SENATOR THOMPSON DEAD

In the course of the meeting considerable business was transacted pertaining to the district and the committee in charge of the arrangements for the dance and social held in Orange hall, Centre village last Friday reported that the event netted the sum of $92 after all expenses had been paid. This amount was turned over to the treasurer of the company and will be used in buying equipment for the members.

Sneak Thieves in High School

Continued

In school was plagiarism, the taking of the product of another's brain and calling it your own. Unfortunately, there is a more common crime in Lowell high school, a crime which is meaner and baser by far; that is the taking of another person's property. We have a few people here in whom a sense of honesty and uprightness seems to be utterly lacking. They are in such a weakened, far gone condition morally, that they think nothing of sneaking, through the dressing rooms when nobody is around, and emptying the pockets of any coat which looks as though it might be worth the trouble. In some dressing rooms it would be almost a miracle if one could leave his money or car ticket in his coat and find it there when he returned.

"During the winter months even hats and rubbers were disappearing. A month or so ago, one of these sneak thieves went so far as to take a pair of shoes from a girl's desk while the girl was drilling. Fortunately, however, he was caught through the excellent sleuth work of some of the teaching force. Of course, in a school of over two thousand pupils, we cannot expect everybody to be angels; but still, it certainly is disgusting to think that the very people who come to school to be educated, to be shown ideals of manliness, to be made better citizens, should exhibit such a low, treacherous spirit as to purloin the belongings of their own fellow-classmates."

IS YOUR CHILD SICK AND AILING?

Give it Gude's Pepto-Mangan—For Thirty Years Doctors' Favorite Tonic

Children that grow too fast and play too hard or perhaps work too hard at school (Oh, yes, some children do work hard at school) become pale and a little run-down, and then mothers and fathers become worried about them. The youngsters do not eat with their usual big appetites, and so they become thin and tire out easily. There is a simple and good remedy for this. It is Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the tonic rich in a certain form of iron that is readily absorbed by the system. Gude's Pepto-Mangan will soon put the color back into the child's cheeks, and give them the kind of an appetite every mother loves to see. It is sold by druggists in two forms—liquid and tablet—and is absolutely safe to give to any child. Ask your home doctor what he thinks about Gude's Pepto-Mangan—Adv.

$500,000 in Liberty Bonds Disappeared

NEW YORK, April 27.—Mystery surrounding the disappearance of $500,000 worth of Liberty bonds in the Wall street district this week, was partially lifted today when it was reported that the securities, mailed by the Chase National bank to a banking institution in Massachusetts, never had reached the postoffice. It was further reported that worthless paper had been substituted for the bonds and that the change was not discovered until the package was opened in Massachusetts. The name of the New England recipient could not be learned. Bank officials asserted that the loss must be borne by surety companies which had insured the securities.

Former "Wolf of Wall Street" Arraigned

NEW YORK, April 27.—David Lamar, once known as the "Wolf of Wall Street" was arraigned before Magistrate McAndrews today on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Mrs. Genevieve Brennan. Mrs. Estelle Allison, who said she was an actress and a scenario writer, was arraigned with him on a similar charge. Mrs. Brennan alleges that she lost $6300 in a stock deal with Lamar, who was introduced to her under an assumed name by Mrs. Allison. The case was adjourned until May 5. Lamar's counsel said that "if Mrs. Brennan lost any money in a deal with Lamar, it was 'a legitimate transaction.'"

To Solve Cuba's Sugar Problem

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The outlook for solution of Cuba's sugar problem is more promising at present than for many months past, according to a survey of the situation prepared by the commerce department. Reasonable estimates, the department said, will place the total available Cuban sugar for the year at 4,700,000 tons and solution of the problem rests upon the ability of the world's consuming market to absorb that quantity in addition to 2,000,000 tons of tariff protected output.

The new minister was met at quarantine by a delegation headed by Senor Ospina, newly elected president of the republic.

Bird's Neponset Rugs

Cut the Cost of Home Decoration

AND, where your floor coverings are concerned, with Bird's Neponset Rugs you can cut it in half if you want to.

"But, can I get the same effects, as good all-round results, the same attractiveness? Can I match my general color scheme and have as good looking a room? Can I get as much rug-usefulness for my money as I could with a more expensive floor covering?"

You can, Madam. Exactly that. For those rooms in which the most wear comes—the dining room, living room, kitchen, pantry, bathroom—no rug at a much higher price will give you a better money's-worth, or greater satisfaction.

And it is so easy to take care of them. Once over with a damp mop and your rug is cleaned instantly. Stainproof. Germproof. Waterproofed thoroughly, both sides—these 1922 idea floor coverings have advantages that will quickly appeal to you.

In addition to all their other good points, Bird's Neponset Rugs have a waxed back. This is a patented process which makes them much more waterproof than other floor coverings. And it eliminates the danger of their sticking to the floor and of permanently staining it.

Sizes: 6 ft. x 9 ft.; 7 ft. 6 in. x 9 ft.; 9 ft. x 10 ft. 6 in.; 9 ft. x 12 ft. Call and see these rugs that so many thrifty home-keepers are buying. You too will come to them, sooner or later. The new Spring patterns are here. Come in and look them over.

CREATOR OF "NICK CARTER" A SUICIDE

NEW YORK, April 27.—Frederic van Rensselaer Day, 61 years old, the originator of the "Nick Carter" detective stories, shot himself to death in his room at the Hotel Brocton, 3 East Twenty-seventh street, Tuesday night or yesterday morning.

32 LIVES LOST AS SHIP FLOUNDERED

BREST, France, April 27.—(By the Associated Press) Thirty-two lives were lost when the French steamer Deputy Albert Taillandier, a vessel of 3000 tons, bound from Rotterdam for Brest with a cargo of coal, foundered off the northern coast of Brittany during a violent storm.

The captain of the ship, the sole survivor, was picked up yesterday by the Greek steamer Pelagia.

TRAFFIC ON BOULEVARD

To enforce the rule that trucks going up the boulevard must keep on the right-hand side of the road, Superintendent of Police MacBrayne, acting on a suggestion made by the superintendent of streets, Harry Doherty, will station an officer at the lower end of the Pawtucket boulevard. The left side of the road is badly damaged as a result of disregard for this rule. Six additional motorcycles have been requisitioned by the police superintendent, and he expects to have the new uniforms for the squad ready in a short time. That emergency orders may be answered at once, it is planned to keep a motorcycle officer at headquarters at all times.

SCORES TARIFF BILL

Will Increase Cost of Living
and Cut Production, Says
Simmons

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The administration tariff bill, if passed in its present form, will lead to higher costs of living, reduced production, unemployment and the further monopolization of American industries, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, the democratic leader in the tariff fight, declared yesterday in the senate.

"A careful study of this bill in connection with existing conditions here and abroad," Senator Simmons said, "makes it perfectly clear that it was framed with a view to maintaining present prices and to enable the industries which it protects to further advance these excessively high prices without incurring the risk of foreign competition."

"A comparison of the rates imposed in this bill with those in the Payne-Aldrich bill will show that upon the basis of the price of products during the two periods—the only basis of fair comparison of equivalent ad valorem—the proposed rates applied to present import prices average from 40 to 50 per cent higher than the average Payne-Aldrich rates for any year during the life of the act."

"I think there can be no doubt," he added, "that the potential rates of this bill are almost if not quite double those of the present law."

Sen. Simmons asserted that the "rule manifestly adopted and followed" by the finance committee in fixing rates "violates every theory or principle of protection heretofore advocated or proclaimed by the champions of protection, including the republican party in this country, and with the super-added rate-making powers conferred upon the president, makes rate-fixing as much a matter of political and personal patronage as the distribution of federal offices."

Proposals in the bill under which the executive could change classifications or forms of duty and increase or decrease rates, were declared by the North Carolina senator to clothe "the president with legislative powers such as were never heretofore conferred upon any administrative officer in this country or any other Anglo-Saxon country, and which if conferred by the parliament of England upon the king and his ministers, would, under their summary method, result in an instant overthrow of the government."

Senator Simmons said the bill was "based primarily on three erroneous assumptions of fact:

"That present importations are excessive and a menace to the business of the country.

"That the home selling price and the export selling price of foreign merchandise is so much lower than the selling price of like or comparable domestic products that much higher rates of duty than those of the present law are needed to bring about fair and competitive conditions."

"That the export price of foreign merchandise as found in the investigations and report of the Reynolds commission based upon such selling prices in August, 1921, has not changed since that time, and are the same today."

ST. JOHN'S REUNION
SET FOR JUNE 15

June 15th is the date set for the annual reunion and banquet of the St. John's Alumni association. Special efforts are being made this year in order to bring many of the "old boys" back to the school.

The last reunion at the school was held three years ago, and all pronounced it a real good time. The following year the reunion was held at the Quincy house, Boston. This year the reunion promises to be the largest and best yet, as it is to be held on commencement day.

LOWELL DRUGGISTS' ASSOCIATION. The Lowell Druggists' association held a meeting in the chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon. Matters pertaining to trade were talked over. The executive committee was empowered to fix a date for the annual outing.

An electrical expert says that $200,000 worth of light is wasted annually because windows, globes, reflectors and shades are not kept free from dirt and dust.

In France yellow is the color of jealousy and domestic discord, and on that account many French women will not wear yellow or have yellow flowers in their houses.

SEEK TO AVERT STRIKE

Only Four Days Remain to Negotiate New Wage Agreement

NEW YORK, April 27.—Only four days in which to negotiate a new wage contract before the present one expires, remained when officers of the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers met with news print manufacturers here today in an effort to avert a threatened strike of 60,000 men.

The manufacturers' committee headed by Floyd Garrison, president of the St. Regis Paper Co., had prepared an ultimatum in reply to the craftsman's refusal to accept their program of wage reduction.

"Accept or strike," was the indicated dictum of the manufacturers, according to Mr. Garrison. They would not compromise a single point, he said, in their demands for a 10 per cent cut for skilled men and elimination of time and a half for overtime, Sundays and holidays. Common labor must be left out of the new agreement, the employers declared, their wages to be determined by the going rate for unskilled men in the localities where they are employed.

The 10 delegates who are here in the interests of papermakers and other organized crafts employed in the industry, today reiterated their refusal to accept the manufacturers' terms.

They had the authority of their men to demand renewal of the present contract, they said, as expressed in the vote upon which they yesterday refused to sign a new agreement on the manufacturer's proposals.

"We accepted a 10 per cent reduction a year ago," said an official of the brotherhood. "The manufacturers sought, last December, to enforce another 10 per cent cut. We refused to accept and a joint arbitration committee upheld us. This committee further stipulated that no reductions should be provided in our next contract."

The demands for elimination of extra compensation for overtime, Sundays and holidays were held by the papermakers to be "a scheme to abrogate the eight hour day, and get us back to a nine and ten hour day basis."

In the provision for elimination of a scale for unskilled laborers, they protested to see an attempt to "weaken the papermakers' brotherhood by drawing into the industry a large amount of cheap labor."

Skilled men in the industry, including carpenters, mechanics, firemen, engineers and papermakers, receive an average of 75 cents an hour, according to the union men, while the rate for unskilled men is 42 cents.

These arguments were countered by the manufacturers with a blanket declaration that "the unions will have to take a cut in pay. They are now receiving from 80 to 150 per cent. above the pre-war scale."

ELY MAY RUN FOR GOVERNOR

BOSTON, April 27.—Joseph B. Ely of Westfield yesterday started an active canvass for support for the democratic nomination for governor.

The former district attorney came into Boston early yesterday, met at least half a hundred local democrats, conferred with practically every member of his party in the house of representatives and took part in the boom only launched for him by the western Massachusetts democrats on Beacon Hill.

BULLETS FLY IN RUM CHASE

NEW YORK, April 27.—The New York Marine police yesterday nabbed the second suspected rum-runner that has entered the harbor in the last 72 hours.

This time it was the clumsy-looking but surprisingly spry steam lighter Ideal, which was captured after a wild chase by two patrol boats along the Brooklyn shore, in and out among anchored craft, a volley of pistol shots fired by the police, and a hand-to-

BASQUE EFFECTS PERSIST IN SUMMER FABRICS

The basque effect of the very light and very plain bodice, which has been a popular feature of many smart frocks during the past winter and spring, bids fair to remain during the coming summer. Many frocks of the sheerest summer fabric are seen with this perfectly plain and snug-fitting waist.

The skirts, usually rather full, are attached firmly to the bodice, which opens in the back, and the distinguishing feature of the mode is the absence of sash, girle or belt.

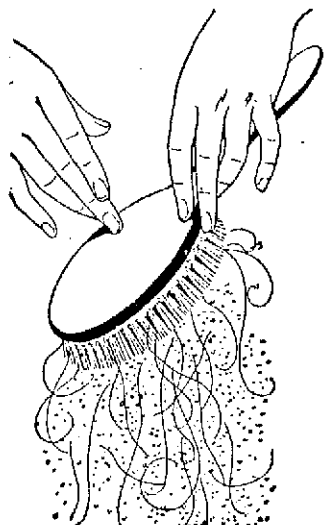

This popular basque frock, which during the cooler months was stunningly developed in woolen fabrics and velvet, with no neck adornment of any sort, is usually seen with a giraffe collar or bertha in its summer version of crisp dimity, dotted Swiss or tissue gingham.

Sketched today are two of the basque frocks so modish just now. They are back-closing, all-in-one dresses, with straight, snug waists, rather long, in accordance with the last word from Paris.

These types are by no means confined to lingerie frocks, but are equally suitable for very dressy wear, developed in any of the light summer silks, laces and combination of silk with lace. The trimming may be as elegant as the purple periwinkle, but the simplest lines are the most fashionable.

LIQUOR PERMITS FOR DRUGGISTS

During the latter part of the week, it is expected, the license commission may take action on application filed by druggists for permits to keep liquor on their premises, as provided by a third class license. A legislative bill eliminating the necessity of advertising the notice of intention to grant such licenses for a period of at least ten days has been enacted by the legislature, and the granting of licenses to those who have applications on file for some time will ensue at an early date.

Mr. Ingham has been connected with the Silesia mills for the past 24 years. From 1898 to 1903, when the mill became a part of the United States Worsted Co., Mr. Ingham held the position of overseer. In 1903 he was promoted to agent and has filled the position with credit up to the present.

G.O.P. VS. CIVIL SERVICE

Today the National Civil Service League meets in Washington to consider various questions involved in the administration of the civil service laws which have recently come to public attention.

The chief subject of discussion will be the recent dismissal without apparent cause and without any regard for established customs of the civil service by President Harding.

All sorts of irregularities have been hinted at in order to furnish some semblance of justification for the president's summary dismissal of officials and other employees of the departments of engraving, investigation, of alleged irregularities have shown that the dismissed charges were false and that the department was 100 per cent efficient.

The latest attempt to justify the heartless dismissal of these officials, mostly aged men and women who had won their positions through merit and efficiency, was through a publication known as the "Plate Printer," official organ of the Plate Printers' union, in which it was alleged that by reason of the poor quality of the money and securities turned out, the country has been flooded with millions of counterfeit Federal Reserve notes, United States notes, Federal currency, National bank notes, silver certificates, war savings stamps, postage stamps, internal revenue stamps and all issues of war bonds.

These charges were denied absolutely by Secretary Mellon of the treasury, who says that no information of the kind has ever come to the knowledge of the treasury department; and he has asked the editor of the "Plate Printer" to furnish him with any evidence he may have in support of this charge.

As Secretary Mellon points out, statements of this kind are calculated to alarm the holders of the securities mentioned and if allowed to go uncontradicted, might injure the credit and the standing of the government securities.

The Civil Service League now in session will also have something to say about the manner of selecting postmasters; on the recommendation of congressmen, national committee men and national referees, instead of in accordance with the civil service rules. The inquiry will doubtless reach the point of inquiring to what extent political favoritism and back-scratching actual merit as indicated by the result of the civil service examinations. The conference will also inquire into the present organization of the civil service commission, which is composed entirely of republicans although the civil service law provides for minority representation.

The attempt of Elmer Dwyer, assistant secretary of the treasury, former secretary to Mark Hanna, to "fardelize" the departments of the government is the most destructive assault yet made upon the civil service. It has scandalized the Harding administration and destroyed the efficiency of government departments by creating a state of panic and chaos among the civil service employees.

Had the republicans openly avowed their purpose of firing democrats and filling their places with republicans, the complaints of employees placed under suspicion would be less persistent, but instead of adopting that courageous course, the republicans have pretended throughout to be friendly to civil service and yet they have evaded its most elementary requirements.

PURE WATER SUPPLY

The city of Lawrence has received from the state department of health an expert statement relative to the impurities of the Merrimack river water, showing that it is one of the most seriously polluted waters used in any city in the United States. The state commissioner recommends that Lawrence take immediate steps to secure a new water supply from some unpolluted source. The letter was written in reply to a series of questions relative to the present water supply of the city and is quite conclusive on all the points touched. This statement leaves the city authorities to choose between the alternative of securing a new water supply or the incurring a large expenditure for the more complete filtration and purification of the present supply.

Already a bill has been introduced in the legislature, the purpose of which is to give the city permit to draw a supply from Bartlett brook. Methuen is also interested in this scheme as her driven wells are not giving satisfaction. Bartlett brook starts somewhere in New Hampshire and flows into the Merrimack river above Lawrence.

It is very evident that the people of Lawrence will never be satisfied with the present water supply, which in spite of every effort to eliminate its impurities, is liable from one cause or another to reach the consumer in a state of impurity. Consequently, it becomes necessary to seek a new supply as suggested by the health commissioner. The expense may be considerable, but it will be better in the long run to spend the money for securing a pure water supply than for the doubtful purification of the Merrimack river water. This is particularly so for the reason that as the commissioner shows the river water may become even more impure than it is at present.

Lawrence has ample areas from which it can draw a pure water supply from the earth near the course of the river, somewhat in the same way as we developed the driven well system. But our system, although yielding pure drinking water, is quite expensive on account of the several stages of pumping and the filtration necessary to eliminate the iron and other minerals from the water.

One of the first and most important considerations for a growing city is a pure water supply. We have the best ## drinking water perhaps in the state. Lawrence can have a supply equally as good; but it will be equally costly; and then, too, at some future day it may be necessary to seek a surface supply from some lake at a distance.

TELEPHONE TALK

Nineteen billion conversations were carried on, over American telephone wires, last year.

Telephone companies, having figured this out, also find that the distance covered by these messages was 45,000,000,000 miles.

Six million messenger boys, working nine hours a day, would be required to deliver all the messages that pass over the telephone wires.

Forty-six years ago, there was only one telephone in the world—the original model belonging to Bell, his inventor. It was a crude device, compared with the phone you use today.

Perfection comes rapidly in our age. Do you remember when you had to turn a crank to attract central's attention?

When labor-saving machinery was first introduced, most people opposed it, on the ground that it would throw many out of jobs. Many an old-time sewing machine salesman still carries his hat in his hand, fired there by "practical" gent who objected to the devilish device that took work from seamstresses.

Today we realize that labor-saving devices merely shift workers into new industries—and raise the standard of living.

You see this illustrated in the American telephone system that does the work of 6,000,000 messenger boys.

METHODS OF TRAVEL

At Red Oak, Iowa, Mrs. C. E. Tuttle climbs into her airplane, travels 400 miles in five hours, and drops into Chicago "to do a little spring shopping."

Today that is interesting news. Twenty years from now it will be so common that it will hardly make family conversation.

One generation marvels at what makes the next generation yawn. When the first railroads were built, people smirked when anyone suggested that steam coaches would displace stage coaches.

When a passenger train jumped the tracks, folks nodded knowingly and said, "See? I told you so."

Today the man who would ride in a stage coach on a long trip, when he could get to the same place by train, would be considered peculiar.

Airplane travel seems risky now. Later it may be as safe as train travel. It may also be more common as automobiles are at present.

PRICE OF LUXURY

The death rate is much higher among the wealthy than the poor, says an officer of the Prudential Insurance company.

He blames overweight, improper digestion, rich food and excessive smoking.

Nature tends to balance things up. Too much luxury and soft living, the shadows of wealth, destroy health. Luxury, desired by all, is like ripe fruit close to decay.

As in all things, strive for the happy medium that lies between too little and too much.

The time is not far distant when it will be feasible to hold a conversation between any two points on the earth's surface by means of the wireless telephone. The president of the United States can then call up the king of Spain, the shah of Persia or the delta rajah of Bhotan, say "Good morning" and ask "How's everything?" When these conditions prevail we may find A. Conan Doyle trying to connect us with the spirit world.

The soviet leaders of Russia who condemned capital so utterly that they robbed the capitalists of the country and had them reduced to poverty, are now willing to recognize capital to the extent of asking a loan of $2,000,000,000 from the capitalist allies. The latter are not very flesh just at present; but even if they had the money to spare, there would be a question as to the reliability and responsibility of the Russian regime.

It is quite evident that Atty. Gen. Allen is to be a candidate for some political office this fall, but for what he has not yet announced. If he wants a chance to clean out the Augean stables of the republican party, his present office will afford him the best opportunity.

Next to Lincoln, Grant holds the place of honor in the work of saving the Union and wiping out slavery. His saying that "We'll fight it out on this line if it takes all summer" indicated his dogged persistent character—the spirit that won the war.

If the police utilized the wireless aright, they might have fewer murder mysteries. At present the auto band can commit robbery and even murder with the chances of escape greatly in its favor.

A more movie camp has broken up a church in Nashua by negotiating with the pastor and ignoring the deacons. Possibly she felt she could camp there later.

It is to be hoped that from the session of the Bull Eternum will ensue some decisive policy for the preservation of order throughout the country.

Business in Lowell will best be advanced if everybody tries to push his own line of activity instead of tearing down that of somebody else.

The Winchester murder mystery is still unsolved. Anybody who can throw any light on the crime should communicate with the police.

SEEN AND HEARD

Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery.

A bird in the pan is worth two in the garden.

Neighbors judge a new family by the furniture that goes in.

April showers bring dry cleaners' business.

The proper place to keep overhead expense is underfoot.

Wonder what has happened to the fellow who used to write about the "excited stranger entered the crowded barroom."

"Eddie" Maguire, a former Lowell newspaperman and now circulation manager for the Boston Post, was in town yesterday, having come here for the purpose of attending the funeral of Edward Crowley, a man whom he much admired.

Thought For Today

An Christ drew near to death, He trembled. It was an experience He created for himself. He never felt it. To His humanity, His flesh, it seemed terrible. Gethsemane bears witness how terrible it seemed. Just He passed it for love of us.—Phillips Brooks.

A Word a Day

Today's word is excavate. It's pronounced—eks-ka-vayt, with accent on the first syllable. It means—to hollow out, to form a cavity, to dig out, to scoop out. It comes from—Latin "ex," out, and "cavere," to make hollow. In common words—excavation, excavator. It's used like this—"Before you build a house, it is necessary to excavate for a cellar."

In the Wrong Pew

The excited individual entered the crowded room while the meeting was in progress, took out a bundle of notes and commenced to address the company. The chairman made repeated efforts to interrupt the speaker, but he refused to be called to order. The oration lasted close upon half an hour, and when he resumed his seat the chairman managed to gain a hearing. "Have you entirely finished, sir?" he asked. "Yes, quite but I defy you to do the truth of my statements," he retorted. "I have no wish to, sir," said the chairman. "The gas company, of the management of which you complain, is holding its annual meeting in the next room. This is the Vegetarian society."

An Indignant Cook

It was late in the evening. Suddenly the doorbell rang and the doctor, whose car was well trained, awoke. Someone asked him services, he concluded, as he walked softly down the stairs and opened the door, "Miss Caroline Tompkins," said the lady caller. "Miss Tompkins was the doctor's cook." "She has retired," said the doctor. "This is for her," said the man, handing the doctor a package from which pressed flowers and buds and leaves of his statements, and the doctor closed the door. "One of cook's admirers," he said to himself. "Has brought her a bouquet." He walked into the kitchen and placed the package in a dish of water. An indignant cook stood before him next morning. "I wish to give notice," she announced. "I don't want any more days in a house where some varmint puts my new hat in a basin of water."

People Sign Anything

A few days ago a lawyer delivered himself of a diatribe against government by petition. He took Oregon as a glaring example, criticizing the Initiative and referendum. The premise of his argument was that people should know their signature had some value, but few of them read the petitions, taking the word of the circulator as to what they contained. "I could go out and circulate a petition accusing a man of murder," was one of his statements. "And from what I have seen, few would read it and refuse to sign. The majority would take my word for what it contained, and I know enough people to get several hundred names for a dozen men with a wide circle of acquaintances would find it possible to get the legal number of signatures for nearly any kind of measure. One of the prime stamping grounds for the professional petition circulator is in the public market. At 10 cents a name they make money. Hardly a week goes by that a crew of this kind is not there, showing its blanks under the noses of passersby, calling them into signing. A fresh gang was in action the other day; no matter what it was circulating, but it was gathering its usual harvest. Few of those asked to sign refused and those who did seldom sought any information as to what it was for. They were content to take the word of the circulator. A typical case was one woman. Asked to sign, she said, 'Sure, I'll sign anything,' and wrote her name. There is some sort of duty evidently in the doing that your name is of value to someone, but people should have some pride in knowing in what company their names appear and what they are endorsing." Portland Oregonian.

To Woodrow Wilson

America for eight long years he gave To you his best no indolent thing. As well you know; and now you turn away.

And let him feel the undeserved sting Of love withheld and gratitude denied. Of prejudice entrenched on every side.

He toiled at home, abroad, by night, by day, To open sales of righteousness, that you, America, might lead the world and guide.

All other nations safely, proudly through, His shoulder heaved the world; the great uplift May to the future be our choicest gift.

Man's indignant shifts with every passing breeze Of fresh opinion, but the high ideals And principles that govern noble mind—

Endure! True truth is one that every patriot feels. A brave, disabled soldier calls to you For justice! Surely, justice is his due.

America we challenge you to speak, And not with hazyard pride, he nobly said: You have most yourself in honoring

Who is so richened from your sacred duty, Present your heart to be the worthy To bear his weight, his sacrificial touch.

ELEANOR KENLY BACON.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The work of Wilfred Kershaw, the local musician, as accompanist at the Lowell Choral society concert Tuesday evening, won him a great amount of praise from the audience, soloists and chorus. The praise was well earned, for Mr. Kershaw, along with Director Flood, has worked long and patiently to make the cantata the success that it actually proved to be on public presentation. Mr. Kershaw is a splendid musician, one of Lowell's finest, and acquits himself with credit in any musical enterprise with which he is concerned.

It was noticeable in district court yesterday that for the first time this evening the table in the enclosure provided for attorneys was entirely free of overcoats. Usually the late comer finds parking space for his superfluous clothing on this table at a premium, but yesterday nothing except hats was visible. This long table is used throughout the year as a clothing department, the old clothes stand has become so feeble as to be altogether untrustworthy. It is possible, however, that the table was originally intended for the lawyer's clerical work or note taking, but if so it has not been used for that purpose in many moons.

With the arrival of the first clouds of the season, even though it is of small proportions, with no great white rain in which the marvelous and death-defying performers are wont to exhibit their skill, warm weather seems much nearer at hand. Less than five weeks remain before the formal opening of the warm weather season at Memorial day, and there is a persistent hope that weather conditions and the temperature will treat us kindly during the interval. The first step relative to the summer playground work was taken by the school committee Tuesday evening, although nearly two months will elapse before the children put away their books. The baseball season has already opened, and will be in full swing within three weeks. Even the hurdy-gurdy is with us once more, and the latter is the best harbinger of warm weather of which I know.

The death of a Haverhill man from burns received when a still exploded should be a warning to all those in this city who are engaged in illicit manufacture of liquor. That there are many of them is a matter of common knowledge, since hardly a day passes without the appearance of two or more of them in district court, through the vigilance of the federal officers and the local liquor squad. Most of the operators brought to light have been men of foreign birth; hawkins, presumably, little or no knowledge of the danger of their occupation, particularly from a scientific standpoint. Condensation of vapor, or steam, is the point where danger is most imminent, although it seems to their belief that the only peril which threatens them is the unexpected visit of liquor officers. They fail utterly to realize that it is possible for the vapor to accumulate faster than the condensing apparatus can take care of it, and the result is certain to be a more or less serious explosion. To be sure, the outstanding characteristic of stills seized in Lowell is their enormous condensers, but even so, the danger threatens, although probably not to such a degree.

For some reason or other people who were privileged to go to the Vesper Country club Tuesday evening to hear Attorney-General J. Weston Allen, did not anticipate that there would be very much humor in his address nor was there any reason to expect it, but the state's highest prosecuting officer began his talk in the lightest possible vein and related one or two stories that may bear repetition. Each was apologized for beforehand because each hit directly at two of the trades represented at the dinner by one or two members of the Rotary club, namely, druggists and plumbers. Nevertheless, Mr. Allen told them so well that they were instantly enjoyed. One was about the deaf man who bought a package of pills from the druggist and when the latter said "45 cents," the purchaser placed a five cent piece on the counter and turned to go. "I said 45 cents," repeated the clerk. "Well, there is your five cents," replied the man. "45 cents, 46 cents," impatiently reiterated the clerk. "Well, there is your old five cent! I tell you, returned the deaf man. "Oh, hell, go along," said the clerk. "I've made 2 1/2 cents on the sale anyway."

The other concerned a boy in a reform school who was learning the plumbing trade. A benevolent old lady, whose habit it was to call at the institution periodically and admonish the boys to live straight lines when they had finished their terms, stopped before the lad one day and noticing that he was industriously working at his plumbing trade, said, "What caused you to be sent here, my boy?" "I was sent up for petty larceny, ma'am, but I'm learning grand larceny now."

NEW STRENGTH FOR INFLUENZA VICTIMS

Many people who have had influenza and have never fully recovered the good health they enjoyed before the attack will be interested in the statement of a woman who has gone through exactly that experience and has found a treatment that restores the system. "I had an attack of influenza" says Mrs. E. A. Paige, of No. 17 Harlow Court, Bangor, Me. "and it left me in a completely run-down condition, without strength or ambition. My skin was yellow, I did not have much appetite and had a pain in my left side. I had dizzy spells, was nervous a great deal of the time and my strength gave out entirely."

"One day I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and began taking them. After the first box I could see that my appetite was improving and that I was gaining in strength. I continued with the pills and built up very quickly. They helped my nerves and I was not so worn and tired. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have given me strength and energy and I am glad to say a good word for them at any time."

Berton Braley's Daily Poem The Good Old Stuff

The novel realistic with an outlook pessimistic Has, at present, quite a literary vogue; And there's always an attraction in a novel full of action Where the hero gets the better of a rogue; Then the analytic study of a soul that's rather muddied Gives the hyper-cultured reader quite a whirl; But the novelist's endeavor that is popular forever Is the story of a Fellow and a Girl!

Tales of superheated passion are at certain times in fashion And the specialist novel often scores; And the volume where the cynic holds a sort of social clinic Is the thing, one type of reader, most adores; But the tale that hits all classes, from the highbrows to the masses, And that sets our sleeping pulses in a whirl Is the book whose glamor hovers 'round a pair of youthful lovers, Just the story of a Fellow and a Girl!

How we joy to feel the splendor of a love that's sweet and tender, How we ache to make the lovers' pathway smooth; How we agonize to aid them when their troubles have waylaid them, How we'd like a chance to counsel them and soothe! Masterpieces grim and tragic lack this blithe eternal magic That makes all our hidden sentiment unfurl; Oh there's nothing else that fills us with a happy glow and thrills us Like the story of a Fellow and a Girl!

Physicians who examined him, found only contusions. The automobile in which the king was traveling from Nice was struck by a machine owned by a Geneva banker. The king's chamberlain was gravely injured. Gustav has left for Baden, Germany, where he will join Queen Victoria.

Radio Helps Cure the Sick!

Sick?
The weary hours of lying in bed and get a radio receiving set to occupy your time over the bad spells. That's what many a hospital patient is doing nowadays, and doctors say radio has been helping them cure their "cases."

There's Lester Piker, 16-year-old high school boy of San Diego, Cal. He's a licensed amateur. His station is 6AJH.

But he has to lie flat on his back while working his station. He fell while erecting his aerial mast and now he is bedridden with a broken back. His physician says the set which his friends finished for him is going to speed his cure considerably. Traffic Officer Jim Flynn, of Newark, N. J., has been in bed since an accident a year ago. But he is helping himself get well by listening in on the concerts broadcasted from the powerful station in Newark.

The remarkable feature about Flynn's set is that the bed spring he

THE LOWELL RADIO CLUB

Action to Be Taken at Next Meeting Relative to Club House

At next Tuesday evening's meeting of the Lowell Radio club plans for the new club house, which the members propose to acquire as soon as possible, will be taken up and discussed thoroughly. Some action will result from the meeting, it is anticipated, for the annual dance held this week netted a substantial sum which will go a long way toward simplifying their club-house problem.

The new quarters are to be located in some part of the city away from the traffic districts; that much is certain. Although the club has not complained much of the high power wires which surround their present club rooms, they openly acknowledge that these wires are a great detriment to radio work.

Due to the increase in static electricity or "static" alone, as it is called by the experts, the great relay stations have slowed up considerably, and this handicap will continue, probably, throughout the summer season. This means that messages, concert and other sending will be heard with increasing difficulty and indistinctness.

One of the difficulties besetting novices who are attempting to construct their own sets is the attempt to make their own transformers. But little success is met with, as the building of the transformers is work for experts. Many

World-Wide Radio Shows Need Of an International Language

By N.E.A. Service
LONDON, April 27.—Radio is revolutionizing the movement for an international language.

Out of the international radio conference held here comes the suggestion of adopting some language, like Esperanto, so that radio fans the world over may understand one another.

This is one of the subjects taken up by the wireless experts of America, England, France and Germany at this conference. It was suggested by Edward J. Nally, president of an American radio distributing firm.

Need of Esperanto

"One of our greatest hopes," said Nally, "is the establishment of an international radio language or code, like Esperanto, which could be understood by all. This would place the activities of the whole world at everybody's ears."

"There is no reason why every American school house should not have a simple wireless apparatus to enable teacher and pupils to listen to what the rest of the world is doing."

Esperanto, the proposed language by which this world-wide communication may be made possible, has already been accepted by many countries as the language of the world. It was composed by Dr. L. L. Zamenhof, the Russian linguist, in 1887.

Since then Esperanto has spread in popularity until now Brazil, Czechoslovakia, Russia, Finland and important parts of other countries have introduced the language in their schools. The Paris chamber of commerce is carrying on a campaign for the adoption of Esperanto by all the world's commercial bodies, as the official commercial language of the world.

Argument Strengthened

The chief argument for Esperanto as the international language is being strengthened through the popularity of radio the world over. It is thought that this will draw humanity closer together by a single medium of intercommunication.

With the rapid progress made in the development of radio as a world-wide means of communication, the need of such language as Esperanto becomes more apparent.

Plans for Building Radio Set Designed by United States Experts

This is the second installment having to do with plans for building your own radio set as designed by United States experts. Another installment will appear tomorrow. Save diagrams until story is complete. Today's installment deals with figures 2 and 3 (see diagram).

N is the wire leading from the "antenna" binding post of the receiving set through the porcelain tube to the upper clip of the lightning switch. This wire, as well as the wire shown at Q, should be insulated and flexible. Unbraided lamp cord will serve for these two leads.

Q is a flexible wire leading from impossible to receive even 10 miles on account of static interference.

To reduce static interference to a minimum, most transmitting apparatus today employ a 500 or 600-cycle note—one having a high-pitched musical sound. Static comes in on a very low pitch.

A good way to cut down on static interference is to employ the least possible degree of coupling between the primary and secondary windings of the receiving tuner to the lowest point where the signals you wish to copy are still audible.

Don't forget to see that there is a good lightning switch on the aerial connection leading into the house. Not only is this necessary to comply with the rules of the fire underwriters, but it is a great protection for the house, making the aerial ground act as a lightning rod.

HOW YOU CAN BAR STATIC

BY R. L. DUNCAN,
Director, Radio Institute of America.

All devices so far put forth to eliminate static interference also cut down the signal strength of the radio station. But a balanced crystal set constructed by the English Marconi company operates with fair success.

It consists of two carbonium detectors energized by a local battery current. On detector is adjusted to a high degree of sensitivity and the other to a lesser degree.

When a heavy charge of static enters the aerial, the crashing sounds are somewhat eliminated by the reaction process of the crystal rectifiers. But the incoming signals are likewise weakened.

In tropical countries, where one ordinarily can receive transmission from a station 500 miles away, it is at times

It is no impossible task to build red-blooded health that will "carry on" far beyond the average years! You see examples of wonderful manhood and womanhood every day—men and women who got away to a flying start from early childhood; men and women whose parents saw that their nourishment built bone and muscle and fitted them to go into the world physically and mentally equipped!

School investigators find that a large percentage of deficient children were not born that way, but reached that state through lack of nourishing food! Children from the best homes suffer this great handicap as well as children who actually lack food! The responsibility of parents is tremendous! Devalitized foods on our tables today cannot promote health or physical fitness or brains!

Kellogg's delicious whole-wheat KRUMBLES—with the full, enticing whole-wheat flavor for the first time in food history—is the ideal food every child should eat every day. KRUMBLES nourish as no other food can, because they contain every vital food element!

KRUMBLES build strong, rugged bodies; KRUMBLES make red blood and bone and muscle! They put a child on its feet naturally, and they make it thrive and grow fine, physically and mentally.

KRUMBLES are a necessity for every member of the family, for they renew strength in men and women workers and they provide food that sustains the aged as nothing else can!

Telephone Receivers

It is desirable to use a pair of telephone receivers connected by a head band, usually called a double telephone headset. The telephone receivers may be any of the standard commercial el makes having a resistance of between 2000 and 3000 ohms.

The double telephone receivers may cost more than all the other parts of the station combined, but it is desirable to get them, especially if it is planned to improve the receiving set later. A single 1000-ohm telephone receiver with a head band may be used but with less satisfactory results.

Accessories

Under the heading of necessary equipment may be listed binding posts, switch arms, switch contacts, test buzzer, dry battery, and boards on which to mount the complete apparatus.

The binding posts, switch arms and switch contacts may be purchased from dealers who handle such goods or they may be readily improvised at home. The piece of wood on which the equipment is mounted may be obtained from a dry packing-box and covered with paraffin to keep out moisture.

Care should be taken in melting the paraffin not to let it too hot. For this reason it is a good plan to melt it in a pan set in boiling water. When the paraffin just begins to smoke it is at the proper temperature.

When the wood parts have been drilled and cut to size, the paraffin should be applied quickly with a small brush. When cold, the excess paraffin must be carefully scraped off with a straight piece of metal such as the brass strip in the edge of a ruler. (Continued Tomorrow)

Says Rheumatism Leaves You Forever

James H. Allen, of Congress avenue, Rochester, N. Y., once a rheumatic cripple, who discovered ALLENRHU and with it banished every trace of uric acid and every sign of rheumatism from his body, says that every doctor who guarantees a full pint bottle of ALLENRHU to show the way to complete recovery or money back.

It relieves at once and immediately after you start to take ALLENRHU the good work begins. It searches out uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels. spurned an offer of $750,000 for them—And now have sold them to the same bidder for a fifth of the original bid.

"Conditions have changed greatly since the first bid" is the explanation. Meantime, the Barge Industrial company, which purchased, for $1800 each, vessels costing from $225,000 to $350,000 each, is speedily arranging for a quick turnover and a scattering of the hulls originally intended for part of the war-time "bridge across the Atlantic."

In a short time, the hulls, converted into barges, will be active in coastal and inter-coastal lumber traffic.

Fleet's Purchasers
L. B. Barde, resident partner of the Barde firm, J. M. Barde of Portland and New York, and Herbert Fleischacker, San Francisco, whose power plant, financial and paper manufacturing interests are coastwide, are the purchasers of the fleet.

Will Be Divided
Organization of a pool to make the buy originated with Fleischacker. Robert J. McGahie, San Francisco attorney, represented the buyers in the negotiations with the shipping board. "Shipping concerns affiliated with our corporation will purchase a large number of the vessels," says L. B. Barde, to whom the fleet was delivered by shipping board agents. "These interests will use the boats in lumber barge service. The others will be sold. We have a number of inquiries regarding them and we plan a quick turnover, selling the vessels at a few thousand each."

have been moored in Lake Union here since spring, 1919. Some of these are completed in every detail except engines. Others are partly converted into barges.

The remainder are in the Columbia river near Portland, and at Alameda, Cal.

Breaking up of the fleet is expected to start within a few weeks. Converting them into barges will furnish work for a number of idle shipyards all along the Pacific coast.

THE ERA OF BOBBED HAIR

Barbers Are Doing Rushing Business While Lady Hairdressers Complain

Time was when famous sisters traveled about the country, displaying marvelous heads of hair that fell in luxuriant folds to their knees. It was every woman's ambition to attain similar distinction. The rising and setting sun shone through its rich tresses and indeed it was a beautiful illustration of woman's crowning glory.

Unhappy rests the head that wears the crown and today the crown not only is being tipped way over on one ear, but is daily approaching the point when it will rattle off altogether and some other feminine attribute must advance to take its place.

For this is the era of bobbed hair and beautiful jet black, dark brown, light blond, auburn and blond locks are falling by the ton to the sickening accompaniment of the barber's shears. Little Goldilocks has given way to frowsy-head. The clippings are being saved against the day when Dame Fashion may execute an about-face and decree that "bobs" no longer are desirable. Then natural switches must be used in a frantic endeavor to gain back the appearance that now is being lost in one sharp click of the scissors.

Associations of lady hairdressers are complaining. In fact they are condemning, for "waves" are no longer popular, shampooes easily can be given at home, and inasmuch as bobbed hair requires no elaborate dressing at all, what is left for the poor hairdresser to do? Nothing, is the correct answer. Business is rapidly falling off and a crisis is approaching. But Dame Fashion smiles and admonishes, "Go to it, girls; what's a hair or two in your young lives?"

Ah, but all lives thus affected are not so young. No, the craze has worked into the middle-aged class and if it continues at the present amazing rate of popularity, grandmother will trim her silvery tresses, throw a wad over the map that remains and there you are!

But business is at peak with the barbers and in the mad rush of girls seeking "bobs" all thoughts of the recent labor trouble and strike have been forgotten. Extra men are being put to work in some local establishments to care for the increased trade and from morning to night do nothing else except "bob" hair.

Do you remember that good line of the fiction writer about the demonstrative chap who was conscious of an electric thrill as "the waving tendrils of her cold black hair softly touched his cheek," and then in the next chapter he was all set to "bury his head in the lustrous folds?" All bunk now, for there's not a chance. Lovers may think up new tricks that can be put over with the bobbed hair type, but the old method is but a memory.

Of course mothers try softly as daughters come home with potential switches done up in paper bags and fathers register dissent as they comment, "Well, what's next?" but daughter justly replies that "really, mother, dear, it is being done this year you know," and "thinks no more of it than if she had gone downtown in the rain without an umbrella."

Some folks think the "bob" has come to stay, others are a trifle skeptical, but admit that it may be several years before the fashion shows an inclination to change.

British Schooner With Liquor Seized

NEW BEDFORD, April 26.—The two masted auxiliary schooner Pesquid, Nassau to Miquelon with a cargo of 3000 cases of liquor, was seized in the territorial waters of the United States off Block Island this morning by the coast guard cutter Acushnet and towed into port here early this afternoon. The manifest displayed by Captain B. W. Lapham of the Pesquid called for 3000 cases of liquor but an inventory of her load by a boarding party discovered the amount to be 150 cases short. The schooner was heading for Newport when overhauled.

Another Irish Army Officer Slain

LONDON, April 26.—(By Associated Press)—Acting Commandant Michael S. O'Neill, of the Third Cork brigade of the Irish republican army, was shot and killed near Bandon, County Cork, today, the Central News reports. He was accompanying other officers and officials to a farmhouse some distance from the town and was fired at point-blank without warning. A member of the farmer's family was arrested.

Officials of Eagles Arraigned

BOSTON, April 26.—The two officials and two employees of the Brockton Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, who were arrested after a raid on the clubhouse by prohibition enforcement officers a week ago, pleaded not guilty today to possessing 19 half barrels of liquor. May 4 was set for a hearing and $500 as the amount of bail, which each was given until tomorrow to supply.

ARMENIANS PROTEST ACT OF PRIME MINISTERS

Armenians in this city have sent a cablegram to the prime minister of each of the allied powers, Great Britain, France and Italy, which reads as follows:

"We, Armenians of Lowell, in a mass meeting, beg to express through your highness our intense indignation to His Majesty's government (or Republic of France) against the last decision of the allied foreign ministers, committing the fate of the Armenians to the murderous sovereignty of the Turks. Such betrayal of the rights of Armenians hold you and your government responsible in history for the bloody struggle to which Armenians shall be inevitably driven to free themselves from the galling yoke of the barbarous Turks.

"We beg of the allied powers to do justice to Armenians, establishing their independence; otherwise they should not expect a lasting peace in the Near East."

KNOWN TO HAVE MARRIED SIX

Extradition Proceedings to Bring John L. Leclair of Barre, Vt., Back to Mass.

Department of Justice Officials and State Police at Work on Case.

GLOUCESTER, April 26.—Extradition proceedings were underway today to bring John L. Leclair of Barre, Vt., also known as John Johnson, back to this state from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to answer to charges of polygamy. Leclair, for whose arrest a warrant has been issued here, police officials say, is known to have married six New England women between 1920 and 1922. The police expressed the opinion that more wives might turn up.

Department of Justice officers, as well as the state police, were said to be interested in effecting Leclair's return to Massachusetts. He was arrested at Poughkeepsie on forged charges while posing as an army major after he had married a woman in Schenectady, N. Y., the police here said and therefore faces charges of illegally wearing the uniform.

Leclair's matrimonial career includes two wives from this city, the police records state. The first was Velma M. Tarr, married at Fitchburg, on Feb. 4, 1920. The second was Maud Allen, wedded at Malden, on Sept. 3, 1921. Between these two weddings Leclair is alleged to have contracted one marriage in Hartford, Conn., and to have later espoused Dorothy Moore of Beverly.

Leclair's next wife is believed to have been a young woman residing in Watertown. This wedding was followed, by that in Schenectady. From the latter city he went to Poughkeepsie.

When Leclair visited Gloucester, he wore the uniform of a United States sailor. He married Miss Allen, one month after he met her.

MURDER OF LANDLORD

Man Captured With Suit Case Containing Portions of Human Body

BRANTFORD, Ont., April 26.—Captured with a suitcase containing portions of a human body which he was removing piecemeal from his room, Harry Dent was charged today with the murder of Peter Yeghiazar, his landlord. Mr. Dent was held on a similar charge.

The torso of the slain man was found in Dent's room, while the head and arms, which Dent admitted he had carried away on an earlier trip, were found in a canal. Dent denied the crime, asserting he was removing the body at the request of a friend.

A bayonet sharpened to a razor edge and a blood-covered axe, both declared to belong to Dent, were found.

BELMONT LOWELL SHOP ATTRACTIONS

In the attractive new store of the Belmont Lowell Shop on M. street is to be found, among other beautiful spring and summer creations, the latest idea in feminine apparel, the famous "Kiki" dress, which is to be featured during the latter part of the week by this extremely up to date establishment.

The blouse is of the softest, most lustrous satin. It is of unusual length, and buttons inconspicuously in the back. The skirt is of tulle, with many yards of this excellent material shirred into gathers. The bunched effect at the hips gives it an unique appearance, absolutely different in style, and resembling the effects favored by another generation in bright checks it tends to carry out the kiki

INDICATIONS OF SUICIDE PACT

Aged Couple Found Dead in Bathroom of Their Home in Brooklyn

Examiner Found Death Due to Poisoning — Woman Dead 24 Hours, Man Eight

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Kings county medical examiner's office found indications of a suicide pact when it was called to examine the bodies of Freeman M. Jackson, 75, wealthy retired carpet manufacturer and his wife, Annie, 70, which were discovered this morning in the bathroom of their suite in the Hotel Markham on Brooklyn Heights.

The examiner found death due to poisoning, but he was unwilling definitely to pronounce the case one of suicide until he performed an autopsy. The woman, he said, had apparently been dead about 24 hours and her husband about eight.

Search of the apartment failed to reveal any bottle which might have contained the poison nor was any letter found indicating that the couple planned to take their lives.

The bodies were found by a maid who came to straighten the rooms.

The examiner considered the possibility that the aged couple had been stricken by ptomaine poisoning, but added that the fact that neither had attempted to summon assistance, tended to discredit this theory.

Howard D. Brainard of East Orange, N. J., a nephew of Mrs. Jackson's said he had seen his uncle recently, that he seemed cheerful and that he knew of no motive for suicide.

P. A. Warren, of 227 Bruce avenue, Lawrence, Mass., a son of Mrs. Jackson's by a former marriage, was notified.

JUDGE SENTENCES BOY TO SHIP ON WHALER

NEW BEDFORD, April 26.—When Judge Frank A. Muliken in juvenile session of Third district court this morning learned that Henry J. Souza, 17 next month, arraigned on a charge of stubbornness on complaint of his father, had the ambition to ship before the mast on a whaler, he remarked:

"Well, you're going."

The judge was informed that the lad whose parents admit they can do nothing with him, would be whaling now but for his mother's objections.

His father, Joseph H. Souza, approves.

"Well, I'm going to overrule the mother's objection," said the judge. "The father is right. It would be the best thing possible for this young man."

Young Souza was placed on probation until June 7, with the understanding that he sign up with the first whaler to leave port.

Signatories of Versailles Treaty to Meet

GENOA, April 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The signatories of the treaty of Versailles will hold a meeting, probably within a fortnight, to elicit fuller information of the French attitude indicated in Premier Poincaré's Bar-le-Duc speech and to decide upon allied action in the event of Germany failing to meet her reparations obligations on May 31.

IN SERIOUS CONFERENCE

There is something earnest and impressive in the countenances and gestures of Lloyd George and Signor Schanzer, Italian statesman, as they walk in the courtyard of the royal palace at Genoa.

LAST PAY FOR STRIKING MINERS

Wives and other members of the family stand in line to collect the striking miners' last pay envelopes at Wilkes-Barre, Pa. It will be the last pay for many of them for some time to come.

NOT TO CALL TROOPS

Gov. San Souci Lacks Authority Only When State of Insurrection Exists

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 26.—While a committee of Blackstone valley strikers was waiting in an anteroom to ask Gov. San Souci to send national guardsmen back into that district "to protect the people from the sheriff" this morning, the governor announced that he had issued orders for the demobilization next Saturday of all troops on strike duty in the Pawtucket valley, at the opposite end of the state.

Following his conference with the Blackstone valley committee regarding their request for the return of the troops, Gov. San Souci gave out a statement, in which he said that he had arranged a meeting for Friday with Mayor Kenyon of Pawtucket and Sheriff Jonathan Andrews of Providence county at which the situation in the city would be discussed.

The statement made no mention of the governor's attitude toward the request for troops. Members of the committee, however, declared that Mr. San Souci told them that he lacked authority to order the troops back into the city. He could only do so, they quoted him as saying, by proclaiming a state of insurrection, which, he said, does not exist.

BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT WIRE DESPATCHES

GENOA, April 26. (By Associated Press)—To date, the economic conference, with the Italian government, 40,000,000 lire.

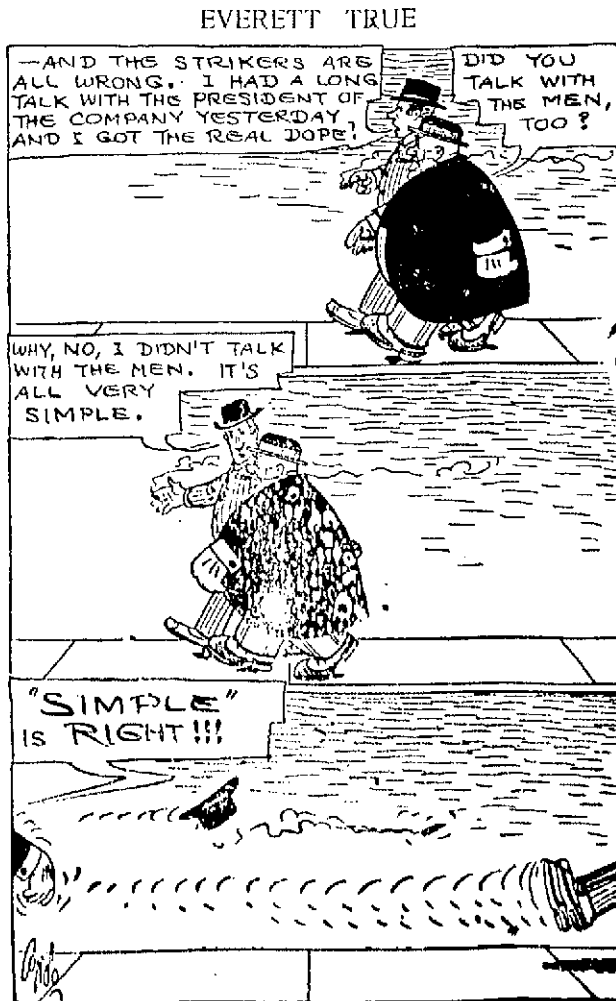

GENOA, April 26.—The Lithuanian delegation today petitioned the economic conference for de jure recognition of their country by the inviting powers and also for the annexation of Memel, the Baltic seaport town.

NEWMARKET, England, April 26.—(By Associated Press)—The 2000 guineas stakes, the first classic of the racing season, run here today, was won by Lord Queensborough's St. Louis, by Louvois, out of Princess Sterling, ridden by the American jockey, Archibald.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—An appeal to the "conscience" of the supreme court is made in a brief filed by Robert A. Widenmann, an unsuccessful litigant.

Adventures of the Twins

AS NANCY CAME ALONG THE ROAD, QUEER PEOPLE GAZED AT THEM CURIOUSLY

The red-feathered hen flew out of Nick's pocket toward Cobalt Town and found its place in the wing of the fore-cash which guarded the gate to King Indig's Palace.

As Nancy and Nick came along the road queer people gazed at them curiously. They were the Diddyevers with the blue hair.

"Look!" said one, poking his neighbor. "There are some strangers. Who do you suppose they are?"

"They must be important," came the answer, "for they couldn't have crossed the Seven Mountains. I wonder what the black thing is."

"Let's go and ask,"

When they heard that it was the record with Longhead's message a wild cheer arose. "Long live the Twins!" they shouted. "Long live King Indig and long live Princess Therna! Long live everybody. We may have a long moon."

"But," said Nick, "we don't know what the record says. Longhead may have decided that Princess Therna is to marry King Vardo with the green beard."

It seems that he couldn't have said a worse thing, for instantly there was a hubbub. The Diddyevers began to act

Damaging Testimony Given at Washington Hearing by Col. Charles A. Stevens of Lowell—Asserts That Duncan K. Major, Former Chief of Staff of Yankee Division, Was Sneering, Suspicious, Domineering and Brutal

Testimony of Col. Charles A. Stevens of Lowell, former adjutant of the 26th (Yankee) Division, yesterday was the outstanding feature of the hearing before the senate committee on military affairs in Washington, regarding the fitness of Duncan K. PITTSFIELD, N. H., April 27.—For a few minutes last night the police thought they were on a red hot trail to the murderer of Ralph W. Brewster at Winchester, Mass., a week ago. A gang of men working on the road saw a young man run breathlessly out of the woods. Then, apparently upon seeing them, he ran back. Sheriff W. R. Emerson was notified. Search was made, and men deployed into the woods. The fugitive was run down and the sheriff found that Everett Drew, a young man well known in the town, had been pursuing a woodchuck with his dog.

SUPERIOR COURT CASE

The Malden Knitting mills of Malden must pay the Lowell Dye works of this city the sum of $986.69 in accordance with a verdict brought in this morning by a superior court jury. A verdict for the defendant followed in the cross suit brought by the Malden company. Litigation followed the alleged non-fulfillment of certain contracts having to do with the finishing of fabrics. The case started Tuesday afternoon and took up the entire session yesterday. The jury was sent out late in the afternoon and returned a sealed verdict of the Yankee Division. The Lowell officer's testimony was held to be particularly damaging to Lieut. Col. Major. Col. Stevens declared as a witness that Major de Bolsorvais of the French army had told him in France that Major had told him that he had been sent to the 26th Division to "get" national guard officers of that outfit

Only Nine Out of 73 City
Appropriations Are Being Expended Too Fast

School Department Expenditures Per Month $16,500
Less Than Average Allowed.

During the months of January, February and March out of the 73 separate city appropriations, only nine departments have failed to live within the amounts provided, based on an average 1-12 monthly expenditure, or in other words, in only nine instances have there been excess expenditures over the average monthly expenditure allowed by the 1922 appropriations. The departments that have exceeded 1-12 of the total are: Charities, outdoor relief, charities, mothers with dependent children, isolation hospital, insurance, mayor, sewer maintenance, soldiers' benefits, street maintenance and workmen's compensation.

The greatest excess expenditure is found in the appropriation for soldiers' benefits, amounting to $6347.31. Street maintenance has exceeded its average by $6142.56 for the three months and sewer maintenance shows over-expenditures of $4952.07 during the same period. Perhaps the most notable instance of retrenchment is found in the school department, where it was felt by many that the estimates had been too deeply cut. In this department the monthly expenditures for January, February and March were less than the 1-12 proportion by $16,500.67 each month. Street lighting, water works, buildings, Clarendon Street hospital, fire, parks, police and board of health office are other departments that have operated well within the average.

SOUTH PAYS TRIBUTE
Sen. Watson Eulogizes Gen.
Grant on Floor of Senate—
Kind at Appomattox

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Senator Watson, Georgia, in eulogizing Gen. Grant on the floor of the senate today said his tribute was that of the south. "In memory of the great soul who refused to accept in surrender the most splendid of human swords, that of Robert E. Lee."

"We honor him and we love him," said Senator Watson, "because at Appomattox he was so kind and loving as to say to the starving and ragged confederate soldier: 'Take your horses home; you'll need them in the time to come.' Had Gen. Grant lived, we never would have had the agony of reconstruction, with its bitterness."

FOURTH SUSPECTED RUM-
RUNNER CAPTURED

NEW YORK, April 27.—The fourth suspected rum-runner to be caught in the vicinity of New York this week, fell into the hands of customs officials today, when the 60-foot motor launch Crazy Kat II hit a sand bar in Jones Inlet, off Freeport, L. I., in a heavy sea. When coast guards reached the craft, she was breaking up and the three men aboard her were taken off with difficulty. She was reported to have been loaded with $10,000 worth of whiskey, some of which had been dumped into the sea before the life saving crew arrived.

DUBLIN, April 27.—(By Associated Press)—Debate in the Dail Eireann today provoked stormy scenes. Arthur Griffith asserted that on the eve of the London negotiations resulting in the Anglo-Irish treaty, Eamon de Valera had asked Griffith to extricate him from the "straight jacket of the republic." Mr. de Valera described this as a "lie" and a turmoil followed. Mr. de Valera demanded that Griffith's allegation be sifted by the judicial committee.

Michael Collins announced that the full correspondence would be published. Mr. de Valera and others protested against the tone of the report made by the foreign minister, reflecting the effect of the Irish dissensions on foreign opinion. A division was demanded and the report was adopted 57 to 40, which maintains the majority by which the treaty was ratified.

Measures for Protection of American and Other For-

PEKING, April 27.—(By Associated Press)—Measures for protection of American and other foreign interests here are being expedited in view of hostilities between the forces of Gen. Tso-Lin and Wu Pei-Fu. Train service to the coast is irregular and the legations are prepared to order seizure of the railroad to keep it in operation, should serious interference develop. It is stated that an allied fleet will land troops, if necessary, to keep communications open between Peking and the sea, in compliance with the protocol of 1901.

One hundred and seventy-five blue-jackets and marines are expected to arrive today to reinforce the guard of the American legation. The men are from the United States cruiser Albany, which was ordered north from Shanghai and tents have been erected for them in the American compound in the legation quarter. The Albany will join the Huron, flagship of the United States Asiatic fleet at Chin Wang Tao, north of Tientsin. The British and French legations also have requested that warships be sent to Chinese waters. The military activities of the opposing generals continue. Wu has concentrated 25,000 men at Pootungfu, the capital of Chihli province and Chang has 30,000 soldiers along the railroad from Peking to the sea.

UNITED TEXTILE WORKERS OPEN
RECRUITING CAMPAIGN

Rally in Trades and Labor Council Hall This Afternoon—Mrs. Mary Kelleher, General
Organizer for the United Textile Workers,
Is Principal Speaker

The first rally in the recruiting campaign under the auspices of the United Textile Workers of America in an endeavor to organize the Lowell operatives 100 per cent was held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in Trades and Labor hall, Central street, and the principal speaker was Miss Mary Kelleher of Scranton, Pa., a general organizer for the U.T.W. Despite the fact that a large number of the striking operatives of this city went to Lawrence to attend the open air rally on the common conducted by President Thomas F. McMahon, there was a fair attendance at the meeting, which was presided over by President John Hanley of the Lowell Textile company. Miss Kelleher spoke of the benefits to be derived from the U.T.W., and asked those present to enroll under the banner of their respective crafts. She

Three Arrested by Postal Inspectors
in Connection With Big Mail Robbery

NEW YORK, April 27.—Louis and Jack Wolfe and Jacob R. Price were arrested by postal inspectors today in connection with the $2,500,000 mail truck robbery perpetrated in lower Broadway on Oct. 24, 1921. Some of the stolen securities, valued at $75,000, were recovered.

The Wolfes were arrested in a large brokerage house at the point of revolvers. Price was taken into custody in the financial district while attempting to negotiate stolen securities, the inspectors said. Postal inspectors who have been working incessantly on the case, picked up the trail of the trio last Friday. Suspecting that they possessed some of the loot from the mail robbery, one inspector posed as a broker and opened negotiations with the prisoners. The inspectors appealed to one of the alleged stock brokerage firms in the city to bid in buying a train, and the man demanded that the Wolfes who concern whose name was not made kept the appointment throw up their hands.

Two Dying After Fight at Leominster

FITCHBURG, April 27.—Wallace Hovey, a railroad worker, is in a dangerous condition in Leominster hospital from self-inflicted revolver wounds and John P. Catches, who, it is alleged, Hovey attempted to kill early today, is in Barabank hospital with a punctured left lung. Leominster police are at Hovey's bedside with a warrant charging him with attempted murder. The fight occurred in Leominster at the home of Mrs. Hovey, from whom her husband had obtained a divorce and on whom Catches was suing. Catches conducts a fruit store here.

Paper Manufacturers To Withdraw Cut

NEW YORK, April 27.—Paper manufacturers today offered to withdraw their demands for wage reductions for skilled workers of the industry if the union would abrogate the scale for unskilled labor. The offer was made to officers of the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers and six allied crafts in an effort to avert a strike at the expiration of the present contract, April 30. Union delegates immediately went into session to consider the offer, and announced that they might give their decision this afternoon.

8 Women Arrested During Riot at Mine

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 27.—Eight women were arrested and a number of state policemen and deputy sheriffs were hurt in a riot at Tower Hill mine No. 2 of the Tower Hill Coke & Coal Co., nine miles southwest of here in Fayette coke regions today. The women were brought to jail here and will be given a hearing tomorrow. The mine was closed by the coal strike several weeks ago.

Mlle. Lenglen Hopes to Meet Mrs. Mallory

MONTE CARLO, April 27.—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen confirmed today the reports that she was going to Brussels for the international hard court tennis championships beginning May 13, and would then take part in the French championships in Paris early in June. "At the end of June," she added, "I shall be in Wimbledon for the world's grass court championships where I hope to meet Mrs. Mallory, Miss Ryan, Mrs. Beamish, Miss McKane, Miss Goss and Mrs. Satterthwaite." In play here yesterday, Mlle. Lenglen won two love sets from Miss Goss, who is considered one of the best Americans in the play at the Beau Soleil championships next week. Later Mlle. Lenglen, with King Gustav of Sweden as partner, defeated M. Manet of France and Miss Robinson Risley of America, 6-1, 6-1.

COMMUNISTS PLAN MAY

Proclamations signed by the executive committee of the communist party of America, J. DAVIS, executive secretary, announcing the usual May Day observance an International Labor Day, are being circulated in this city and a copy has reached police headquarters. An investigation will be made immediately, in an effort to learn the identity of the local agent or agents. The party slogan "Down with Capitalism! Major had shaken his fist in his face when he had refused to comply with an order issued by the chief-of-staff that did not carry the approval words, "By command of Major General Clarence R. Edwards," and that Col. Major's attitude toward enlisted men was sneering, suspicious, domineering and brutal, and that he was heartily despised by officers and men of the division, including officers

Wm. Barnes, San Antonio, Texas, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar has been worth $50.00 a bottle to me. I had 'the flu,' followed by pneumonia, which left me weak, with a persistent cough. of the regular army and national guard officers. He alleged that Col. Major was particularly hostile to national guard officers. He said that it was his duty to provide him with photographs and orderlies, and that the men came to him repeatedly and begged him to relieve them. They begged not to be sent to Col. Major's office, because of the constant abuse, he testified. Col. Stevens added that he saw Col. Logan in Troy, France, in September, 1918, and told him to "watch out, Col. Major is after you and will get you." Logan laughingly replied: "That's not true. Only a few days ago I talked with Col. Major and he told me that the inspection just made by the inspector-general A.E.F. showed my regiment to be the best regiment in the 26th Division. He expressed personal and official thanks for the assistance I had given him on the nights of July 23-24." Col. Stevens replied: "Perhaps you know Major better than I do. He's out to get you. Watch out."

When Col. Stevens was asked if Col. Major had ever shown any personal dislike to the national guard officers, he said: "Yes." He told how Major de Boursouval, who had been with the 26th Division for more than a year, had said that Col. Major had told him, the French major, that he had been sent to the division to get rid of national guard officers. On cross-examination Col. Stevens produced the statement in writing from the French major in corroboration of his testimony.

Col. Hunt asked Col. Stevens if he had ever received a letter of commendation from Col. Major. Col. Stevens replied that he had had such a letter and produced it, in which Col. Major praised in the highest terms the zeal and capacity of the Massachusetts colonel. When Col. Stevens was asked what his business was, he replied that he was in the wool business. He said Congressman John Jacob Rogers had offered him the position of postmaster at Lowell, but he had no intention of entering politics. He asked if he might make a statement, and on receiving permission said that the only reason he was a member of the delegation from Massachusetts was the firm belief that Duncan K. Major was incompetent and he felt it his duty to appear before the committee and so testify.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—unpleasant look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you 90 per cent. of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for cod liver oil, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 10c and 30c—Ask

Great Refund Offer

Lowell People Who Are Weak, Sickly, Nervous Or Run Down

IMPORTANT NOTICE:—By special arrangement, we can now extend to any person in Lowell who wants more strength, energy and endurance, the opportunity of using Nuxated Iron so that if you do not get all and even greater benefits than you expect, it will not cost you one cent, because we ourselves will promptly return your money.

You may wonder how we can afford to do this. The answer is that week after week a large number of Lowell people come into our store for Nuxated Iron; throughout the country over four million people use it annually. Blood examinations by physicians all over the country show that an enormous number of people do not have enough iron in their blood. Without iron the blood becomes thin, pale and watery. In many cases this so seriously weakens the vital organs that people often believe they have heart or stomach trouble, kidney diseases, nerve force exhaustion or some other serious ailment. They have pains and palpitation of the heart, sudden dizziness, faintness or spots before the eyes, when as a matter of fact the trouble is all due to lack of iron in the blood, and when iron is supplied, all of these symptoms disappear.

Genuine Nuxated Iron contains true organic iron like the iron in your blood. So many people are deficient in iron who would surely be benefited by this remarkable remedy that we recommend that you come right to Green's Drug Store and get a regular $1.10 bottle for 79c, use it for two weeks and note the improvement in your own case. You are the judge—if you do not get all and even greater benefits than you expect, just bring back the wrapper and we will promptly refund the full amount you paid.—Adv.

Baldy of Nome Dies!

BY GENE COHN
BERKELEY, Cal., April 27.—Baldy of Nome has crossed the trail's end, but he has left behind a sermon for men to read and heed; he has left an epitome of dogdom.

In the Northland code of Baldy and his clan were written large these traits: stalwart courage, unswerving purpose, eternal faithfulness and pride of clan.

His code knew no defeat but death, and so the most famous of Alaskan sled dogs is finally beaten.

They have buried him under a rose bush in the yard of his sled driver, "Scotty" Allen. Over the little mound of freshly turned earth they have hung Baldy's service flag with its 36 stars; a star for each of the shaggy sons he sent to the great war.

Only a dog—yet the news that he has gone on his last mush has traveled from the white silence of the Arctic, that once was his home, to the Swiss Alps, where the survivors of the line live on pension of the French government.

Baldy's Exploits
Only a dog—yet, when his driver fell in Alaskan snows during a race he had the heart and brains to stop, serve in his track and lift to the sled the injured man.

No other dog had ever been able to lead his team in seven successive races across the 418-mile course of the Alaska sweepstakes.

The miniature puppy pet of a small boy, he was sold into the dog racing stables of Darling & Allen, once of

Nome, to become the greatest sled dog of all time.

After his victories his owners brought him here. His fame traveled far and when the war came Lieut. Rene Haas of the French army traveled 10,000 miles to get for war service sons of Baldy's line.

From the Alps came some months later the story of how a dog team, after climbing precipitous mountains with munitions, came into camp without a driver. A German bullet had found the soldier. But the dog leader knew that it was his duty to carry on and reach the isolated regiment. Where did they find such a dog? A son of Baldy of Nome, of course!

It was Baldy that Jack London used as the composite type of his dog heroes, and one day a tombstone is to be placed over Baldy's grave and on it will be inscribed these lines from a poem written to him by Esther Birdsnail Darling:

BALDY

"My eyes grow dim, but I seem to see
The wastes where the Arctic winds blow free . . .
They say when the breath of a dog is done
That he and the clay of his grave are one;

A lie, I say, for there is no end
So long as he lives in the heart of a friend."

The estimated cost of smoke to the people of one large American industrial city is $10,000,000 a year, the items including the enormous waste from imperfect combustion, increased laundry bills, the expense of additional painting and cleaning, and the added cost of artificial lighting.

hours, both sides using rifles and machine guns. Two were killed and six others wounded.

Various houses have been commandeered by the regulars, or provisional government troops who are reported to have launched an attack on the irregulars. Great excitement prevails.

The fighting began at 5 a. m., and ended about 7 o'clock. The regulars captured and disarmed a lorry load of republicans.

The buildings bear evidence of the fray and the merchants refuse to open their stores, fearing a recurrence of the trouble. The republicans are still holding the police barracks.

Civil War Vets Pay Tribute to Grant

SARATOGA SPRINGS, W. Va., April 27.—A little group of Civil war veterans—some of whom stood guard in 1885 over the body of their dead general, U. S. Grant, gathered at Mount McGregor today to pay tribute to their old leader in the little cottage on the summit of the mountain where Gen. Grant died. The program was arranged by the six survivors of the detail of 60 members of the Post Wheeler, G. A. R. who were assigned as a guard at the mountain after Gen. Grant's death.

Ex-Capt. Sullivan of Boston Police Dead

BOSTON, April 27.—James P. Sullivan, who, until his resignation recently had been captain of police in the most important section of this city for years, died at Dennisport, today. He had gone there to rest after turning in his badge when ordered from Station 2 to night duty at police headquarters. Captain Sullivan was 64 years old.

Action Against Will of Bispham Dismissed

NEW YORK, April 27.—Surrogate Foley today dismissed the action against the will of David Bispham, famous baritone, brought by his widow and daughter, ruling that the plaintiffs had failed to prove that Bispham had been unduly influenced by Mrs. Henrietta M. Ten Eyck. The contested will bequeathed to Mrs. Ten Eyck, one-fourth of a $100,000 trust fund Bispham had inherited from his father and all of his own estate. Mrs. Bispham and her daughter were left the remainder of the trust fund.

Attorney Leahey Disbarred

BOSTON, April 27.—Supreme Court Justice Jenney today ordered an entry disbar Attorney John P. Leahey because of alleged misappropriation of funds belonging to the heirs of Patrick Lennox of Lynn, a leather manufacturer for whom Leahey was counsel in bankruptcy proceedings several years ago. The disbarment petition was filed by the Boston Bar Association.

Flee Before Flood Waters

Towns of the government fleet here, hastened to the affected territory for flood relief work and arrangements were being made to care for all refugees arriving here.

houla parishes today the only means of communication was by boat. Practically all of the two parishes are covered with water, also large tracts in Tensas, Franklin and Avoyelles parishes, which comprise a rich farming area devoted largely to cotton.

Practically all livestock in the threatened area had been removed. One hundred former service men of the Natchez Post of the American Legion erected tents today for the refugees.

Break at Poydras

NEW ORLEANS, April 27.—A break in the Mississippi river levee at Poydras, about 10 miles south of New Orleans was reported today. A section of the levee about 100 feet long gave way, the report said, and approximately 350 families were flooding before the waters.

Pimples and boils

—caused by errors of diet

A well-known skin specialist says that pimples are "signal flags of danger" often indicating errors in diet.

Indeed pimples are so frequently associated with faulty habits of eating and improper digestion that the first thing to do is to see that our food is right.

Fresh yeast is a wonderful corrective food for these skin disorders. Fleischmann's Yeast is rich in the elements which improve appetite and digestion and which keep the intestines clean of poisons.

Physicians and hospitals all over the country are recommending Fleischmann's fresh yeast for pimples and boils. It gets right at the basic cause of these complaints.

Eat 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's fresh yeast daily before or between meals to keep your skin healthy. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-fol package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer.

Trinity river was well within its banks this morning, the gauge showing a drop of 14 feet overnight and now registering 17 feet. Street car service was restored this morning to all flooded suburbs. The dead and missing list is now 49.

Lloyd George Calls Meeting

aggression pact, advocated by the British prime minister.
As for the prime minister's address, it is generally regarded as an effort on his part to take a far-sighted view of the political destinies of Europe.
On the other hand, France, with her comparatively small population, desires guarantees, while the lesser states are deeply concerned for their future security.

Draw Up Reply

GENOA, April 27.—(By the Associated Press) The representatives of the big and little ententes and Portugal expected to have before them in final form today the statement to be presented to the Russian delegates in answer to their counter propositions for the economic restoration of Russia which the allies found unacceptable.

This statement is being drawn up primarily to satisfy England, France and Belgium, who are the heaviest creditors of Russia. In their answer to the allies, the Russians appear to have made no reference whatever to the war debts which the allies add they were ready to "scale down."

In the English text of the allies' proposals, the phrasing was "in view of the serious economic conditions in Russia, the creditor governments are prepared to write down the war debts owing by Russia to them." The Russians apparently interpreted the words "write down" to mean "complete cancellation." They, therefore, ignored the war debts in their rejoinder. What the attitude of the powers will be on this question has not been made clear.

Meanwhile the Genoa conference has developed plainly into one of the most important political world conclaves in history by reason of the momentous problems which have come to the surface since its inauguration.
A note of gravity was added to the situation by Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain in an address last night to the American and British press correspondents in which he uttered the warning that a new political crisis was confronting Europe.

NOW DO MY WORK WITH EASE

Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored My Health

Hornell, N. Y. — "I was in bad health but there didn't seem to be any one thing the matter with me. I was tired out all over and it was an effort for me to move. I was irritable and couldn't sleep nights and had trouble with my bowels and at my periods. It seemed that nearly every one around me knew of your medicine and wanted me to try it, so at last I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and improved every day. I do all my own work now except the washing and do it with ease. I can accomplish as much in a day now as it would have taken me a week to do last winter and I try to get every one I know to take your medicine to build them up. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial if you like." — Mrs. CHAS. BAKER, 21 Spencer Ave., Hornell, N. Y.

In almost every neighborhood there are women who know of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They know because they have taken it and have been helped. Why don't you give it a trial?

Tool Maker, Tells

How Sanalt Relieved Him

Suffered from Stomach for 6 Months

Mr. Wilfred Perry of Sayreville, Great Road, Rhode Island, is a young man who has spent nine years of his life at his present residence. He is an extremely skilled tool maker and his work is very trying on eyes and head as well as body. He says: —

"I had been working very steadily and very hard and almost before I knew it my stomach went back on me. I became constipated, had severe headaches, suffered greatly from gas in the stomach. My blood became very weak and my liver was all out of condition so that my eyes became dull and my complexion very yellow. I suffered greatly from heartburn, my appetite was poor and I was growing almost too weak to work. I tried several medicines that were recommended to me, but without result.

"Then a friend gave me a very little Sanalt. I could feel some effect from a few doses, so I purchased a regular bottle and then another one and by the time I had taken the two I was perfectly fit. However, to be sure, I started on a third bottle, but took only a small part of it.

"My blood, stomach and all other organs were soon working right. My complexion cleared up, appetite returned and I was again perfectly fit for work or play.

"I have recommended Sanalt to a number of friends who have been helped by it and I wish that everybody who has any such trouble as I had would take it. All progressive druggists sell Sanalt."

KID WEDGE GOES BACK TO ARIZONA HOME

BOSTON, April 27.—Frederick R. "Kid" Wedge, whose arrival at Harvard last winter caused so much interest until he was finally admitted as a student in the Graduate School of Education, has left Cambridge for his home in Arizona because of illness. Wedge will be remembered as the famous prize fighter and lumber jack who, after being a "hanger on" in a lumber camp in Wisconsin, and regarded as a social outcast, redeemed himself when more than 25 years of age and rose to attain a university degree and the professorship of a high school.

It was learned late last night that Wedge was leaving for his home, where a wife and family await him.

AGED COUPLE VICTIMS OF STRANGE POISON

NEW YORK, April 27.—A strange poison, so mild that it probably would not have killed younger persons, and so unusual that its nature will have to be determined by chemical analysis, caused the death of Fremont M. Jackson, 75, and his 70-year-old wife, Annie, whose bodies were found in their hotel apartment in Brooklyn yesterday.

This was the report issued today by Dr. Charles Wuest and Dr. Karl Boettiger, assistant medical examiners, who conducted an autopsy. The unknown poison, they reported, was so mild that it did not even irritate the linings of the victims' stomachs. Mr. Jackson, a retired carpet manufacturer, and Mrs. Jackson, who was his childhood sweetheart, and whom he married a year ago, came to the hotel from Paine Beach about two months ago. Both had been married and widowed before they met after a long separation and decided to patch up their early romance.

Dr. Wuest's theory was that the aged people ended their lives in a suicide pact. This was scouted by relatives and friends, however, who asserted they appeared happy and had no financial or other worries that might have caused them to see death.

EARNINGS OF $10,785,312
NEW YORK, April 27.—Net earnings of $10,785,312 for 1921 as compared with $35,580,415 in 1920, are shown in the annual report of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation, made public today.

STRAUS SUSPENDED
NEW YORK, April 27.—Jack O. Straus, board member of the New York stock exchange firm of J. O. Straus, has been suspended from the exchange for one year. It was announced today. No explanation was offered.

TO EXTRACT GASOLINE
SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—C. P. Bowle, petroleum engineer attached to the United States bureau of mines here, announced today secret experiments conducted for three years have revealed a process for extracting gasoline from asphaltum, oil shale, oil waste, tar and tar with "below grade" oil.

CALL FIREMEN RESIGN IN DRACUT

Five call men connected with the District 4 fire company of Dracut tendered their resignation at a meeting of the company held last evening in its quarters in Kenwood. Those who resigned are Orlin H. Harker, Arthur Pilote, George Degusse, Michael Cassidy and Thomas McManus. The reason of their retirement was not made public.

IN the course of the meeting considerable business was transacted pertaining to the district and the committee in charge of the arrangements for the dance and social held in Grange hall, Centre village last Friday reported that the event netted the sum of $92 after all expenses had been paid. This amount was turned over to the treasurer of the company and will be used in buying equipment for the members.

The money was left by Newton's father.

Continued

In school was plagiarism, the taking of the product of another's brain and calling it your own. Unfortunately, there is a more common crime in Lowell high school, a crime which is meaner and baser by far, that is the taking of another person's property. We have a few people here in whom a sense of honesty and uprightness seems to be utterly lacking. They are in such a weakened mental condition morally, that they think nothing of sneaking through the dressing rooms when nobody is around, and emptying the pockets of any coat which looks as though it might be worth the trouble. In some dressing rooms it would be almost a miracle if one could leave his money or car ticket in his coat and find it there when he returned.

"During the winter months even hats and rubbers were disappearing. A month or so ago, one of these sneak thieves went so far as to take a pair of shoes from a girl's desk while the girl was sitting at her desk. Fortunately, however, he was caught through the excellent sleuth work of some of the teaching force. Of course, in a school of over two thousand pupils, we cannot expect everybody to be angels; but still, it certainly is disgusting to think that the very people who come to school to be educated, to be shown ideals of manliness, to be made better citizens, should exhibit such a low, treacherous spirit as to pilfer the belongings of their own fellow-students."

IS YOUR CHILD SICK AND AILING?

Give it Gude's Pepto-Mangan—For Thirty Years Doctors' Favorite Tonic

Children that grow too fast and play too hard or perhaps work too hard at school (Oh, yes, some children do work hard at school) become pale and a little run-down, and then mothers and fathers become worried about them. The youngsters do not eat with their usual big appetites, and so they become thin and fret out easily. There is a simple and good remedy for this. It is Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the tonic rich in a certain form of iron that is readily absorbed by the system. Gude's Pepto-Mangan will soon put the color back into the children's cheeks and give them the kind of an appetite every mother loves to see. It is sold by druggists in two forms—liquid, and tablet—and is absolutely safe to give to any child. Ask your home doctor what he thinks about Gude's Pepto-Mangan. Adv.

$500,000 in Liberty Bonds Disappeared

NEW YORK, April 27.—Mystery surrounding the disappearance of $500,000 worth of Liberty bonds in the Wall street district this week, was partially lifted today when it was reported that the securities, mailed by the Chase National bank to a banking institution in Massachusetts, never had reached the postoffice. It was further reported that worthless paper had been substituted for the bonds and that the change was not discovered until the package was opened in Massachusetts. The name of the New England recipient could not be learned. Bank officials asserted that the loss must be borne by surety companies which had insured the securities.

Former "Wolf of Wall Street" Arraigned

NEW YORK, April 27.—David Lamar, once known as the "Wolf of Wall Street" was arraigned before Magistrate McAndrews today on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Mrs. Genevieve Brennan. Mrs. Estelle Allison, who said she was an actress and a scenario writer, was arraigned with him on a similar charge. Mrs. Brennan alleges that she lost $6300 in a stock deal with Lamar, who was introduced to her under an assumed name by Mrs. Allison. The case was adjourned until May 5. Lamar's counsel said that if Mrs. Brennan lost any money in a deal with Lamar, it was "a legitimate transaction."

To Solve Cuba's Sugar Problem

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The outlook for solution of Cuba's sugar problem is more promising at present than for many months past, according to a survey of the situation prepared by the commerce department. Reasonable estimates, the department said, will place the total available Cuban sugar for the year at 4,700,000 tons and solution of the problem rests upon the ability of the world's consuming market to absorb that quantity in addition to 2,000,000 tons of tariff protected output.

Colombian Minister to U. S. Arrives

NEW YORK, April 27.—Dr. Enrique Olaya Herrera, newly appointed Colombian minister to Washington, arrived today on the Sixaola after a trip up the coast in which a sneak thief kept him and other passengers in constant worry. The thief entered staterooms while passengers were dining and took jewelry, watches and in some cases money. The new minister was met at quarantine by a delegation headed by Senor Ospina, newly elected president of the republic.

BIRD'S NEPONSET PRODUCTS

Bird's Neponset Rugs

Cut the Cost of Home Decoration

AND, where your floor coverings are concerned, with Bird's Neponset Rugs you can cut it in half if you want to.

"But, can I get the same effects, as good all-round results, the same attractiveness? Can I match my general color scheme and have as good looking a room? Can I get as much rug-usefulness for my money as I could with a more expensive floor covering?"

You can, Madam. Exactly that. For those rooms in which the most wear comes—the dining room, living room, kitchen, pantry, bathroom—no rug at a much higher price will give you a better money's worth, or greater satisfaction.

And it is so easy to take care of them. Once over with a damp mop and your rug is cleaned instantly. Stainproof. Germproof. Waterproofed thoroughly, both sides—these 1922 idea floor coverings have advantages that will quickly appeal to you.

In addition to all their other good points, Bird's Neponset Rugs have a waxed back. This is a patented process which makes them much more waterproof than other floor coverings. And it eliminates the danger of their sticking to the floor and of permanently staining it.

Sizes: 6 ft. x 9 ft.; 7 ft. 6 in. x 9 ft.; 9 ft. x 10 ft. 6 in.; 9 ft. x 12 ft. Call and see these rugs that so many thrifty home-keepers are buying. You too will come to them, sooner or later. The new Spring patterns are here. Come in and look them over.

CREATOR OF "NICK CARTER" A SUICIDE

NEW YORK, April 27.—Frederic van Rensselaer Dey, 61 years old, the originator of the "Nick Carter" detective stories, shot himself to death in his room at the Hotel Brozelli, 3 East Twenty-seventh street, Tuesday night or yesterday morning.

His body was found at 2 p. m. by Charles F. MacLellan, managing editor of the firm of Street & Smith, who first published the famous Nick Carter tales, who had hurried to the hotel after Ormond G. Smith, the president of the firm, received from Mr. Dey a letter announcing his intention.

32 LIVES LOST AS SHIP FLOUNDERED

BREST, France, April 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Thirty-two lives were lost when the French steamer Deputy Albert Tallandier, a vessel of 3000 tons, bound from Rotterdam for Brest with a cargo of coal, foundered off the northern coast of Brittany during a violent storm.

The captain of the ship, the sole survivor, was picked up yesterday by the Greek steamer Pelagia.

TRAFFIC ON BOULEVARD

To enforce the rule that trucks going up the boulevard must keep on the right-hand side of the road, Superintendent of Police MacBrayne, acting on a suggestion made by the superintendent of streets, Harry Doherty, will station an officer at the Lowell end of the Parrotet boulevard. The left side of the road is badly damaged as a result of disregard for this rule.

Six additional motorcycles have been requisitioned by the police superintendent, and he expects to have the new uniforms for the squad ready in a short time. That emergency orders may be answered at once, it is planned to keep a motorcycle officer at headquarters at all times.

SCORES TARIFF BILL

Will Increase Cost of Living
and Cut Production, Says

Simmons

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The administration tariff bill, if passed in its present form, will lead to higher costs of living, reduced production, unemployment and the further monopolization of American industries, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, the democratic leader in the tariff fight, declared yesterday in the senate.

"A careful study of this bill in connection with existing conditions here and abroad," Senator Simmons said, "makes it perfectly clear that it was framed with a view to maintaining present prices and to enable the industries which it protects to further advance these excessively high prices without incurring the risk of foreign competition."

"A comparison of the rates imposed in this bill with those in the Payne-Aldrich bill will show that upon the basis of the price of products during the two periods—the only basis of fair comparison of equivalent ad valorem import prices applied to present import prices—average from 40 to 50 per cent higher than the average Payne-Aldrich rates for any year during the life of the act."

"I think there can be no doubt," he added, "that the potential rates of this bill are almost if not quite double those of the present law."

Sen. Simmons asserted that the "rule" manifestly adopted and followed by the finance committee in fixing rates "violates every theory or principle of protection heretofore advocated or proclaimed by the champions of protection, including the republican party in this country, and with the super-added rate-making powers conferred upon the president, makes rate-fixing as much a matter of political and personal patronage as the distribution of federal offices."

Proposals in the bill under which the executive could change classifications or forms of duty and increase or decrease rates, were declared by the North Carolina senator to clothe "the president with legislative powers such as were never heretofore conferred upon any administrative officer in this country or any other Anglo-Saxon country, and which if conferred by the parliament of England upon the king and his ministers, would, under their summary method, result in an instant overthrow of the government."

Senator Simmons said the bill was "based primarily on three erroneous assumptions of fact:

"That present importations are excessive and a menace to the business of the country."

"That the home selling price and the export selling price of foreign merchandise is so much lower than the selling price of like or comparable domestic products that much higher rates of duty than those of the present law are needed to bring about fair and competitive conditions."

"That the export price of foreign merchandise as found in the investigations and report of the Reynolds commission based upon such selling prices in August, 1911, has not changed since that time, and are the same today."

ST. JOHN'S REUNION
SET FOR JUNE 15

June 15th is the date set for the annual reunion and banquet of the St. John's Alumni association. Special efforts are being made this year in order to bring many of the "old boys" back to the school.

The last reunion at the school was held three years ago, and all pronounced it a real good time. The following year the reunion was held at the Quincy house, Boston. This year the reunion promises to be the largest and best yet, as it is to be held on commencement day.

LOWELL DRUGGISTS' ASSOCIATION
The Lowell druggists' association held a meeting in the chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon. Matters pertaining to trade were talked over. The executive committee was empowered to fix a date for the annual outing.

SEEK TO AVERT STRIKE

Only Four Days Remain to Negotiate New Wage
Agreement

NEW YORK, April 27.—Only four days, in which to negotiate a new wage contract before the present one expires, remained when officers of the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers met with news print manufacturers here today in an effort to avert a threatened strike of 50,000 men.

The manufacturers' committee headed by Floyd Carlisle, president of the St. Regis Paper Co., had prepared an ultimatum in reply to the craftsmen's refusal to accept their program of wage reduction.

"Accept or strike," was the indicated dictum of the manufacturers, according to Mr. Carlisle. They would not promise a single point, he said, in their demands for a 10 per cent cut for skilled men and elimination of time and a half for overtime, Sundays and holidays. Common labor must be left out of the new agreement, the employers declared, their wages to be determined by the going rate for unskilled men in the locality where they are employed.

The 40 delegates who are here in the interests of papermakers and other organized crafts employed in the industry, today reiterated their refusal to accept the manufacturers' terms. They had the authority of their men to demand renewal of the present contract, they said, as expressed in the vote upon which they yesterday refused to sign a new agreement on the manufacturer's proposals.

"We accepted a 10 per cent reduction a year ago," said an official of the brotherhood. "The manufacturers sought, last December, to enforce another 10 per cent cut. We refused to accept and a joint arbitration committee upheld us. This committee further stipulated that no reductions should be provided in our next contract."

The demands for elimination of extra compensation for overtime, Sundays and holidays were held by the papermakers to be "a scheme to abrogate the eight hour day, and get us back to a nine and ten hour day." In the provision for elimination of a scale for unskilled laborers, they proposed to see an attempt to "weaken the papermakers' brotherhood by drawing into the industry a large amount of cheap labor."

Skilled men in the industry, including carpenters, masons, etc., are not affected. They receive an average of 13 cents an hour, according to the union men, while the rate for unskilled men is 42 cents.

These arguments were countered by the manufacturers with a blanket declaration that "the unions will have to take a cut in pay. They are now receiving from 80 to 150 per cent above the pre-war scale."

ELY MAY RUN FOR GOVERNOR
BOSTON, April 27.—Joseph D. Ely of Westfield yesterday started an active canvass for support for the democratic nomination for governor.

The former district attorney came into Boston early yesterday, met at least half a hundred local democrats conferred with practically every member of his party in the house of representatives and took part in the boom openly launched for him by the western Massachusetts democrats on Beacon Hill.

BULLETS FLY IN RUM CHASE
NEW YORK, April 27.—The New York Marine police yesterday nabbed the second suspected rum-runner that has entered the harbor in the last 72 hours.

This time it was the clumsy-looking but surprisingly spry steam lighter ideal, which was captured after a wild chase by two patrol boats along the Brooklyn shore. In and out among anchored craft, a volley of pistol shots fired by the police, and a hand-to-

WEEKS SUBMITS REPORT

Says Economics Inaugurated in War Dept. Brought Saving of $40,023,339

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Secretary Weeks sent to the senate military committee today a "hastily prepared" report of economies inaugurated during his administration in the war department, showing a total saving of $40,023,339. The report was made in response to a request of the committee. "It is very apparent, however," Mr. Weeks wrote, "that many economies which have been instituted have resulted in savings which cannot be crystallized into actual amounts—policies which are permanent in their character and the result of which will continue to be reflected in reducing the expenditures for the operation of the army."

In the list of economy measures noted by the secretary, was elimination of certain annual reports and filing methods in his own office resulting in a saving of $50,000. He set down $75,000 as saved by curtailment in activities of the adjutant general's office; $45,000 in the signal corps through curtailment of telephone activities; $10,000,000 in the quartermaster corps through various curtailments and reorganizations; $3,000,000 in the air service through numerous measures, including remodeling of otherwise obsolete planes; $234,100 in the ordnance department through limitation of repairs at permanent stations, except as needed to protect storage and by other means; $54,000 in the chemical warfare service through consolidation of activities in tents and overboard; $850,000 in the militia bureau "by scaling down the national guard equipment" and careful study of rifle range proposals, and $48,249 through consolidations and wage readjustments under the inland and coastwise waterways service.

Other items noted were savings of $7,000,000 in general administration by confining recruiting activities to established posts and discontinuing all intensive recruiting, and by other means; $800,000 in "replacing appropriations by strict oversight of expenditures" under this head and "disapproval of projects except when absolutely needed for efficient operation of the army"; $200,000 through curtailment of military orders and discontinuance of travel not absolutely necessary; $5,000,000 under a general reserve heading covering funds kept under control of the secretary of war which are not available for obligation without his specific approval.

COOLIDGE LAUDS GRANT

His Greatness in Peace as Well as in War Dwelt Upon by Vice-President

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The greatness of Gen. Grant in peace as well as in war, was dwelt upon by Vice-President Coolidge today at the unveiling of the Grant Memorial here on the occasion of the centennial anniversary of the birth of the former president and union general.

"It is in response to an increasing sentiment of gratitude and patriotism," the vice-president said, "that national action has set apart this day to observe the centennial anniversary of the birth of a great American, who was sent into the world endowed with a greatness easy to understand, yet difficult to describe, the highest type of intellectual power—simplicity and directness; the highest type of character—fidelity and honesty. He will forever hold the admiration of a people in whom these qualities abide."

"Our country and the world may well consider the simplicity and directness which marked the greatness of Gen. Grant. In war his object was the destruction of the opposing army. He knew that task was difficult. He knew that the price would be high, yet amid abuse and criticism, and misunderstanding and jealousy, he did not alter his course. He paid the price. He accomplished the result. He wasted no time in attempting to find some substitute for victory."

"He held fast to the same principle in time of peace. Around him was the destruction which 'the war had wrought.' The economic condition of the country was depressed by a great financial panic. He refused to seek refuge in any fictions. He knew that sound values and a sound economic condition could not be created by law alone, but only through the long and toilsome application of human effort put forth under wise law. He laid the foundation of national welfare on which the nation has stood unshaken in every time of storm and stress. His policy was simple and direct and eternally true."

"Here was a man who lived the great realities of life. As Lincoln could put truth into words, so Grant could put truth into action. He truly he stands out as the great captain of a republic through and through he was genuine. He represented power. The great issues of the world must be met and met squarely. A grateful republic has raised this monument not as a symbol of war, but as a symbol of peace."

CONVICTS REVOLT IN CALCUTTA JAIL

30 Make Break for Gates—Guards Open Fire Killing Several Men

Few of the Prisoners Succeeded in Escaping Over the Walls

CALCUTTA, April 27.—(By Associated Press)—Discontent over alleged favored treatment of political prisoners is believed to have been at the bottom of yesterday's convict revolt in the jail here, when a break for the gates was made by about 300 of the men, several of whom were killed when fired upon by the guards. A few of the prisoners succeeded in escaping over the walls.

The discontent came to a head when one of the wardens, it is alleged, struck a Mohammedan prisoner for insubordination.

Definite figures on the casualties are not yet obtainable.

BRYAN SENDS $100 TO COLLEGE PROFESSOR

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., April 27.—William Jennings Bryan has sent a check for $100 to Dr. C. Spangler, professor of botany in West Virginia university as a reward for answering certain questions on evolution put by Mr. Bryan in a recent address here. Mr. Bryan in the letter accompanying the check, declared that "it is worth $100 to me to see a college professor guilty of cowardly evasion."

Mr. Bryan had challenged any university professor to recognize the Bible and the principles of evolution, and Dr. Spangler undertook the task.

As the result of Prince Hirschitz's recent visit to Europe publication of photographs of the Imperial family in newspapers and magazines will be permitted.

RUSSIAN CONCESSIONS STILL IN PAPER STAGE

BERLIN, April 27. (By Associated Press).—Whether Germany will succeed in occupying the position of the most favored nation in Russia's future economic developments, remains doubtful, despite the optimism in certain quarters, says an article in the Independent organ, Der Tag, which warns against exaggerated hopes of big and certain profits.

Of 1500 concessions thus far granted to Germans by the soviet government, says the article, none has progressed beyond the paper stage, as the Russians are unable, or unwilling to carry out the terms they signed.

ANNUAL EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON

TO REVIVE MASTER BAKERS' ASSOCIATION

In an effort to revive a master bakers' association in Lowell, which will embrace bakers in practically all parts of Middlesex county and a portion of Essex, a largely attended meeting was held on Tuesday night of this week at which action was taken which eventually will result in active affiliation with the New England Master Bakers' association.

Upwards of 60 master bakers met for dinner at the Colonial at 8.30 o'clock and afterwards elected the following officers of the local association: President Robert Friend; vice president, Edward Scully; treasurer, C. B. Stoddard; secretary, Mr. Bibeault of Lawrence.

Further plans of reorganization will be discussed at another meeting of the association to be held on the evening of May 9.

BASQUE EFFECTS PERSIST IN SUMMER FABRICS

The basque effect of the very tight and very plain bodice, which has been a popular feature of many smart frocks during the past winter and spring, bids fair to remain during the coming summer. Many frocks of the sheerest summer fabric are seen with this perfectly plain and snug-fitting waist.

The skirts, usually rather full, are stitched firmly to the bodice, which opens in the back, and the distinguishing feature of the mode is the absence of sash, girle or belt.

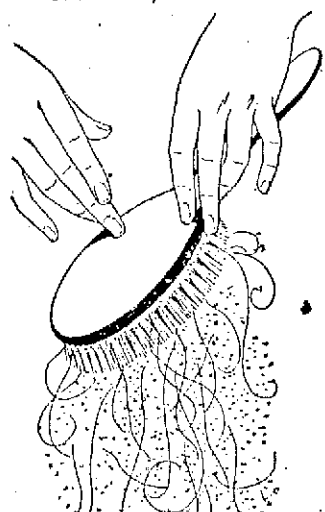

This popular basque frock, which during the cooler months was strongly developed in woolen fabrics and velvet, with no neck adornment of any sort, is usually seen with a handkerchief collar or bertha in its summer version of crisp dimity, dotted Swiss or tulle tingham.

Sketched today are two of the basque frocks so modish just now. They are, back-closing, all-in-one dresses, with straight, snug waists, rather long. In accordance with the last word from Paris.

These types are by no means confined to lingerie frocks, but are equally suitable for very dressy wear. Developed in any of the light summer silks, laces and combination of silk with lace. The trimming may be as elegant as the pique permits, but the simplest lines are the most fashionable.

NEW YORK, April 25.—This started out with a unique predilection to be an interview with Viscount Astor. Not with Lady Astor at all. It was to be a talk with an obscure husband.

"Extraordinary! Why, it isn't done," Lord Astor was saying, trying to recover from his surprise. "You must want to see my wife."

Just then Lady Astor came down the stairs, on her way out for a walk with her sister, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson.

"Well," Lady Astor called out, "I'm glad the press is awakening to the importance of my husband."

Right there it became a double-barreled interview.

"The idea," said Lady Astor, "I work. He doesn't get enough credit. He'd like to be back in the house of commons with me."

She shook an emphatic finger. "He's a power in politics—and independent."

She laughed. "Why, here in America they'd think him a Bolshevik!"

Lord Astor breaks in.

Lord Astor, tall, lithe and athletic-looking, broke in and succeeded in getting Lady Astor to stop talking about him. She laughed and left. Then it became his interview.

"Overshadowed by my wife? Indeed, I'm not," he said. "We work too much together to have that happen."

He pulled at his wisp of brown moustache and showed his even teeth in a smile. "Yes, she gets more publicity—but I'd be rotten to be jealous of one's wife, wouldn't I? Especially since I encouraged her to go into politics. Of course I did—she wouldn't have you know, if I hadn't."

He's Her Protector

"I'm her protector. I protect her from all sorts of visitors. He looked tremendously severe. 'By Jove, it's a real job!'"

I wanted to know whether Lady Astor's political life interfered with her home. "Oh, it does," he said, "but it's extraordinary the way she's able to have a home life and keep in touch with the children and do her public work too. Children? Six, you know—from three years up."

"And I'll tell you one thing—she sees more of her children than a lot of society women who haven't a thing to do!"

They Live By Schedule

"We do it by schedule, the only way. At times we cut off from public work—and take a holiday at home."

Lord Astor said Lady Astor is eager to retire from politics, and would if it were not that it would look like running away.

She gets from 500 to 1000 letters a week," he said. "Oh, yes, more than I get. She'd like to get away from it. If I could get back into the house of commons—where I'd like to be—"

Lord Astor, who is the Hon. "I'm a mere figurehead in the house of lords," he said, with a rueful smile. "I tried to get out. I'm still trying—but there's not much hope. The house of lords needs reforming; fewer members for one thing. Imagine 600 members with 100 or so who've never taken their seats, and a usual attendance of 30 or 40."

Lord Astor thinks more women will attain parliament at the next election in Great Britain.

"Not all women succeed in office after they get in," he grinned. "But lots of men are physical failures, too. Neglected husbands should ponder that."

Why He Went There

Why will a man walk past several lunch rooms—yes, sometimes past a Waldorf—even when he is in a hurry, and go to a more distant Waldorf Lunch where the food is the same?

For the same reason that we walk on the sunny side of the street. That man puts himself out because he knows that there is a counterpane there who waits upon him with such friendly and pleasant courtesy that the food served by him seems to be more appetizing. He feels that he is welcome there—he feels more at home.

Every Waldorf employe is instructed in the high value that the Waldorf System places upon courtesy: Unusual acts of courtesy toward customers, in actual service, are heralded with as much enthusiasm as the public welcomes the opening of the big league games.

Radio Helps Cure the Sick!

Sick? The weary hours of lying in bed and Get a radio-receiving set to occupy your over the bad spells.

That's what many a hospital patient is doing nowadays, and doctors say radio has been helping them cure their "cases."

There's Lester Plicker, 16-year-old high school boy of San Diego, Cal. He's a licensed amateur. His station is 6AJH.

But he has to lie flat on his back while working his station. He fell while erecting his aerial mast and now he is bedridden with a broken back. His physician says the set which his friends finished for him is going to speed his cure considerably.

Traffic Officer Jim Flynn, of Newark, N. J., has been in bed since an accident a year ago. But he is helping himself get well by listening in on the concerts broadcasted from the powerful station in Newark.

The remarkable feature about Flynn's set is that the bed spring he lies on is his antenna. He resorted to this means of catching the signals when hospital rules forbade his having an outdoor aerial erected.

Such problems will be solved in all likelihood by a paper which is to be published about the first of May by the bureau of standards of the department of commerce, which will describe a new receiving set which makes the use of the storage battery unnecessary. As the battery is the most expensive item of the set the new set is expected to meet with immediate popularity, and many of the local amateurs will be able to indulge in their favorite pastime at a much lower cost.

The winners of first class amateur operator's licenses as a result of last Saturday's examination are not yet ready for announcement, but those who took the examination are, for the most part, sanguine of success.

THE LOWELL RADIO CLUB
Action to Be Taken at Next Meeting Relative to Club House

At next Tuesday evening's meeting of the Lowell Radio club plans for the new club house, which the members propose to acquire as soon as possible, will be taken up and discussed thoroughly. Some action will result from the meeting, it is anticipated, for the annual dance held this week netted a substantial sum which will go a long way toward simplifying their club-house problem.

The new quarters are to be located in some part of the city away from the traffic districts; that much is certain. Although the club has not obtained much of the high power wires which surround their present club rooms, they openly acknowledge that these wires are a great detriment to radio work.

Due to the increase in static electricity or "static" alone, as it is called by the experts, the great relay stations have slowed up considerably, and this handicap will continue, probably, throughout the summer season. This means that messages, concert and other sending will be heard with increasing difficulty and indistinctness.

One of the difficulties besetting novices who are attempting to construct their own sets is the attempt to make their own transformers. But little success is met with, as the building of the transformers is work for experts. Many

World-Wide Radio Shows Need Of an International Language

By N.E.A. Service
LONDON, April 27.—Radio is reviving the movement for an international language.

Out of the international radio conference held here comes the suggestion of adopting some language, like Esperanto, so that radio fans the world over may understand one another.

This is one of the subjects taken up by the wireless experts of America, England, France and Germany at this conference. It was suggested by Edward J. Nally, president of an American radio distributing firm.

Need of Esperanto

"One of our greatest hopes," said Nally, "is the establishment of an international radio language or code, like Esperanto, which could be understood by all. This would place the activities of the whole world at everybody's ears."

"There is no reason why every American school house should not have a simple wireless apparatus to enable teacher and pupils to listen to what the rest of the world is doing."

Esperanto, the proposed language by which this world-wide communication may be made possible, has already been accepted by many countries as the language of the world. It was composed by Dr. L. L. Zamenhof, the Russian linguist, in 1887.

Since then Esperanto has spread in popularity until now, Brazil, Czechoslovakia, Russia, Finland and important parts of other countries have introduced the language in their schools. The Paris chamber of commerce is carrying on a campaign for the adoption of Esperanto by all the world's commercial bodies, as the official commercial language of the world.

Argument Strengthened

"The chief argument for Esperanto as the international language is being strengthened through the popularity of radio the world over. It is thought that this will draw humanity closer together by a single medium of inter-communication."

With the rapid progress made in the development of radio as a world-wide means of communication, the need of such language as Esperanto becomes more apparent.

Plans for Building Radio Set Designed by United States Experts

This is the second installment having to do with plans for building your own radio set as designed by United States experts. Another installment will appear tomorrow. Save diagrams until story is complete. Today's installment deals with figures 2 and 3 and per diagram.)

It is the receiving set which is described in detail below. X is the wire leading from the "antenna" binding post of the receiving set through the porcelain tube to the upper clip of the lightning switch. This wire, as well as the wire shown at Q, should be insulated and flexible. Unbraided lamp cord will serve for these two leads.

Q is a flexible wire leading from impossible to receive even 10 miles on account of static interference.

To reduce static interference to a minimum, most transmitting apparatus today employ a 500 or 600-cycle tone—ones having a high-pitched musical sound. Static comes in on a very low pitch.

A good way to cut down on static interference is to employ the least possible degree of coupling between the primary and secondary windings of the receiving tuner to the lowest point where the signals you wish to copy are still audible.

Don't forget to note that there is a good lightning switch on the aerial connection leading into the house. Not only is this necessary to comply with the rules of the fire underwriters, but it is a great protection for the house, making the aerial ground act as a lightning rod.

It is desirable to use a pair of telephone receivers connected by a head band, usually called a double telephone headset. The telephone receivers may be any of the standard commercial cial makes having a resistance of between 2000 and 3000 ohms.

The double telephone receivers may cost more than all the other parts of the station combined, but it is desirable to get them, especially if it is planned to improve the receiving set later. A single 1000-ohm telephone receiver with a head band may be used but with less satisfactory results.

Accessories

Under the heading of necessary equipment may be listed binding posts, switch arms, switch contacts, test-buzzer, dry battery, and boards on which to mount the complete apparatus.

The binding posts, switch-arms and switch contacts may be purchased from dealers who handle such goods or they may be readily improvised at home. The pieces of wood on which the equipment is mounted may be obtained from a dry packing-box and covered with paraffin to keep out moisture.

Care should be taken in melting the paraffin not to get it too hot. For this reason it is a good plan to melt it in a pan set in boiling water. When the paraffin just begins to smoke it is at the proper temperature.

When the wood parts have been drilled and cut to size, the paraffin should be applied quickly with a small brush. When cold, the excess paraffin must be carefully scraped off with a straight piece of metal such as the brass strip in the edge of a ruler.

Firepo, Argentine Fighter, Hopes To Arrange Title Bout With Dempsey

LUIS FIRPO, IN VARIOUS TRAINING STUNTS

By BOB DORMAN
NEW YORK, April 27.—Luis Firpo, Argentine boxer, recently came to the United States with the laudable object of separating Jack Dempsey from his crown, probably possessing the most colorful personality of any fighter in the ring today.

Though he is taller and heavier than Dempsey, the more one talks with him the more one is impressed with their resemblance.

Firpo is handicapped at present by the fact that he doesn't speak English, but he is studying hard to remedy that. Conveying through his secretary, Jose Gutierrez, he gives the impression that with the proper kind of handling in a year or two he may give Dempsey a very busy afternoon.

Here is Firpo's own story of how he took up the fight game.

"I have been in some 30 fights in my own country, 20 of which I won by knockouts. There is no future there for a fighter. Here in the United States are all the champions.

"Not that I want to meet Mr. Dempsey today or tomorrow. I know that I am too green. In a year, maybe two, I will know enough, and then I honestly believe that I can beat the champion."

"Meanwhile I shall take on heavyweights in my class and hope to work my way to the top of the division, becoming a pugilist, but my success won't come over. My four brothers have become regular fight fans."

"I have been in some 30 fights in my own country, 20 of which I won by knockouts. There is no future there for a fighter. Here in the United States are all the champions."

Trick play is costly to the Indians. This Speaker of the Cleveland Indians is a great manager.

Speaker uses his head in running his baseball team. The first in the line to resort to strategy in order to handle a certain situation. If the strategy goes over the manager is regarded as a victor.

In a recent game at Detroit Manager Speaker of the Cleveland club pulled a bit of outfield strategy that probably few other big league outfielders would have even attempted.

From Speaker's standpoint his strategic move worked perfectly. Some of the other Cleveland players, however, failed to think as rapidly as their manager and a play that would have snuffed out a rally, had it been properly completed, resulted in a serious injury to second baseman Wambach.

There is a detailed account of the unusual happening in the first inning of the game. Cleveland made three runs and Detroit came back with two runs and had Veach on second, Blue on first and one out, with Fothergill at bat.

This was the setting when Fothergill hit a fly ball to short center field. Speaker cut under the ball while Blue and Veach held close to their bases.

Instead of catching the ball, Speaker deftly trapped it.

With the same motion that he had used to catch the ball, Speaker threw it to Wambach on second.

The base runners were at sea as to what to do. When Wambach received the ball Veach was standing on second time or first, and Fothergill, who had hit the ball.

All Wambach needed to do to complete a double play was to run over and touch Veach, who was forced to tag him. Instead, he tagged Fothergill, who was also some distance off third.

Veach then made a break for that bag, and instead of a double play being actually retired.

Finally, in the run-up on Veach, the ball was tossed to Wambach while he was standing on second time or first, and Fothergill, who had hit the ball.

Blue, who had been retired, dashed for home.

Nothing a runner coming into second, and possibly thinking it was Fothergill, who had hit the ball, jumped in front of the bag to touch him.

The runner who happened to be Blue, who had been retired perhaps 15 seconds before when Wambach accidentally hit the bag with his foot.

Blue slid into second very high, cutting two deep gashes in Wambach's leg. He will be fortunate if he isn't laid up for some time as a result of the mishap.

It was a most unusual play, in which the manager thought a bit too much for his teammates. It was a bit of strategy, but it cost the Indians a valuable player.

LOWELL HIGH Buries NASHUA HIGH 13-3

Sweet was the music made by the boys hurling off the bats of Coach Joe Donahue's high school boys as the team batted Nashua high, 13 to 3, yesterday's game played on the Spaulding park ball field.

Lowell batted first and scored three runs in the first inning. The team got out in the first inning. The team got out in the first inning.

LOVELL TEXTILE DEFEATED BY FITCHBURG NORMAL NINE BY 6-5 SCORE

Lowell Textile lost a tough game to Fitchburg Normal school yesterday afternoon at the Moody street grounds after a great uphill fight, by a score of 6 to 5 in ten innings.

Although defeated, the local boys showed they had plenty of nerve and that a margin of a few runs didn't upset them in the least.

As a whole, Bob Farwell's boys played smart baseball and showed they had been coached to do the right things, but they lost out because of poor fielding.

A minor-league coach can overcome no matter how great.

For four innings the "Tex" team trailed four runs to the lead, but in the fifth they came through with three runs and in the eighth tied up the count at four all.

Neither team scored in the ninth, but Fitchburg broke through for a brace in the 10th. Still leading, the local boys got one run back in their half, but lost a great chance to tie up the game when Valentine, who drove a long hit to right field, was out at third by three feet.

Smiling Jim Davidson, who pitched for the K. C. team last season, was in the pulpit for the Teachers.

He pitched a fine game, although he was touched up for 11 hits. Claude Farwell, who opposed him, did every bit as well and would have won the game in nine innings had he been accorded even fair support.

Lowell made six errors behind Farwell, which about tells the story of the visitors' runs, and the fact that they were made on good clean hitting.

Fitchburg jumped away to a two-run lead in the first inning, got one back in the second, and in the fourth, in the fifth, Farwell drew a walk.

Reynolds reached first on an error and when the visiting infield blew up on the third, he had a chance to cross the plate.

A lively walk to right field by Capt. Sullivan sent Reynolds and Olsen across the pan.

Marble tied the game in the eighth frame, sending Valentine to the fourth.

In the 10th Tennessee opened with a two-base hit to center and went to third on Nolan's short hit to right.

King, long specified by left allowed Tennessee to rally while hits by Demers and Brady drove Nolan home.

In Lowell's last inning, a two-run lead in the first inning, got one back in the second, and in the fourth, in the fifth, Farwell drew a walk.

Reynolds reached first on an error and when the visiting infield blew up on the third, he had a chance to cross the plate.

STAR PITCHER SHIFTS STYLE

Is it a wise move for a pitcher who has won success as a big leaguer with a certain style of pitching, to shift to another delivery?

That is a sentence tells the story of the career of Pitcher Howard Ehmke of the Detroit club.

Ehmke came to the American league as a side-arm pitcher, much after the style of Grover Alexander or Walter Johnson.

His fast ball, delivered with a sweeping side-arm motion, had a break on it that made it almost uncatchable.

Inside of a year Ehmke was one of the most talked about pitchers in the American league, particularly from the players' standpoint.

Nine out of every ten players in the American league disliked to hit against Ehmke when he was using the side-arm delivery.

Certainly there could be no better testimony to the effectiveness of such a style.

Before the start of a game Ehmke had the edge because the players disliked to hit against him.

Under club last year Ehmke's success was just so-so. Any number of reasons could be offered for his failure to win consistently.

Athletics Break Yankees' Winning Streak—Phillies Stop Giants

Kenneth Williams' Home Run Streak Stopped by Tiger

Rookie

NEW YORK, April 27.—The Giants and Yankees were temporarily halted yesterday in their race pennantward by both Philadelphia teams, the Quakers turning the tables after a series of emphatic trouncings.

Camille Mack's Athletics broke the Yankees' streak of seven straight, pulling the game out of the fire in the ninth when Sam Jones skyrocketed while the Phillies were outstaring the world's champion, 6-4.

In a game featured by four circuit drives, McGraw sent three hurriers into the fray, but a vain effort to stem Williams' slugging.

The Giant setback gave the Cubs an opportunity to crowd into a tie for the league leadership, Alexander earning a 10-inning decision over Ed Adams of the Pirates in a battle of veteran hurling masters.

Roy Grimes' three hits knocked in all of Chicago's tallies.

Kenneth Williams' home run streak, in which he collected six in four days, was stopped when Babe Cole twirled Ty Cobb's Tigers to a shutout victory over the Browns.

As Cleveland also met defeat at the hands of the White Sox chiefly as a result of its own misadventure and Chicago's timely batting, the Yankees retained their margin over their nearest rivals.

Four Red Sox pitchers were punned by Washington for 19 hits and 16 runs, giving the Senators, who are presently rounding into form, a clean sweep of the series.

Two Brooklyn recruits, Pitcher Vance and Catcher Hinkle, were mainly responsible for the 10-1 trouncing administered to Boston, Hinkle knocking in six runs and scoring himself with a single, double and triple.

Eppa Wixey, Cincinnati's elongated southpaw, pitched the Reds to their second victory in the season, a 3-0 shutout over the St. Louis Cardinals.

TWO VETERANS IN HARVARD CREW

CAMBRIDGE, April 27.—There are seven Harvard crew letter men at Cambridge this year, but only two of them will be in the Crimson varsity boat when it meets University of Pennsylvania Saturday.

Captain George Appleton and Harry Morgan are the only veterans of last year seated in the first eight. Budd Ladd and Sam Duncan are members of the second eight, while McCagg, Kane and Terry are not rowing.

The building up of a new crew rowing system at Harvard under Master-ship Herbert Howe is said to be responsible for the method of picking the crew without regard for last season's performances.

Four members of the present varsity crew were members of the freshman eight developed last year under the personal care of Dr. Howe.

BOB JOHNSON DEFEATS CURTIN

Bob Johnson, local wrestler, won a bout from Arthur Curtin last night in a wrestling match held in Curran hall, Boston, after 28 minutes of fast work.

The local boy had the better of the bout the entire way. In answer to several queries as to whether or not women will be admitted to the wrestling carnival scheduled for the Crescent rink on Wednesday next, it has been decided to admit them.

There are quite a few wrestling enthusiasts among the fair sex of this city.

THE ERA OF BOBBED HAIR

Barbers Are Doing Rushing Business While Lady Hairdressers Complain

Time was when famous sisters traveled about the country, displaying marvelous heads of hair that fell in lustrous folds to their knees. It was every woman's ambition to attain similar distinction. The rising and setting sun shone through its rich tresses and indeed it was a beautiful illustration of woman's crowning glory.

Unhappy rests the head that wears the crown and today the crown not only is being tipped away over one ear, but is daily approaching the point when it will rattle off altogether and some other feminine attribute must advance to take its place.

For this is the era of bobbed hair and beautiful jet black, dark brown, light blond, auburn and blond locks are falling by the ton to the sickening accompaniment of the barber's shears. Little toddlers have been given way to frothy heads. The clippers are being saved against the day when Dame Fashion may execute an about-face and decree that "bobs" no longer are desirable. Then natural switches must be used in a frantic endeavor to gain back the appearance that now is being lost in one sharp click of the scissors.

Associations of lady hairdressers are complaining, in fact they are condemning, for "waves" are no longer popular, shampooing easily can be given at home, and inasmuch as bobbed hair requires no elaborate dressing at all, what is left for the poor hairdresser to do? Nothing, is the correct answer. Business is rapidly falling off and a crisis is approaching. But Dame Fashion smiles and admonishes, "Go to it, girls! What's a hair or two in your young lives?"

Ab, but all lives thus affected are not so young. No, the craze has worked into the middle-aged class and if it continues at its present amazing rate of popularity, grandmother will trim her silvery tresses, throw a net over the map that remains and there you are!

But business is at peak with the barbers and in the mad rush of girls seeking "bobs" all thoughts of the recent labor trouble and strike have been forgotten. Extra men are being put to work in some local establishments to care for the increased trade and from morning to night do nothing else except "bob" hair.

Do you remember that good line of the fiction writer about the demonstrative chap who was conscious of an electric thrill as "the waving tendrils of her coal black hair softly touched his cheek," and then in the next chapter he was all set to "bury his head in its lustrous folds"? All bunk now, for there's not a chance. Lovers may think up new tricks that can be put over with the bobbed hair type, but the old method is but a memory.

Of course mothers cry noisily as daughters come home with potential switches done up in paper bags and fathers register disgust as they comment, "Well, what's next?" but daughter faintly replies that "really, mother, dear, it is being done this year you know," and thinks no more of it than if she had gone downtown in the rain without an umbrella.

Some folks think the "bob" has come to stay, others are a little skeptical, but admit that it may be several years before the fashion shows an inclination to change.

McMAHON AGAIN ANSWERS GREENE

Disagrees With Mill Man's Declarations that Wage Cut Seems Inevitable

Labor May Take Leaf From Capital and Advise Northern Workers to Go South

LAWRENCE, April 27.—Southern competition, advanced by New England cotton mill owners as the cause of the recent wage cut, is a device for justifying low wages in New England. President Thomas P. McMahon of the United Textile Workers of America asserted at a mass meeting of striking textile workers here today. He was replying to recent statements by Edwin Farnham Greene, treasurer of the Pacific mills, that the textile industry in New England was in danger of disappearing under the advantages of southern mills.

"Mr. Greene," the labor leader asserted, "puts his capital north or south, as he sees fit." Suggesting that if labor and capital could not prosper together in the textile industry in New England, labor had better take a leaf from capital and go south. McMahon said he intended to find out more about the relative advantages of north and south for the textile worker. "If it develops that textile workers are better off in the south, it will become the business of the union to tell northern workers to go south," he added.

"With all due respect to Mr. Greene, I could answer his entire address in a single, short sentence. He considers the rights and needs of dollars more important than the rights and needs of human beings.

"Mr. Greene says that the 'consensus of opinion' seems to be that a wage cut was inevitable. I don't agree. In 1920 and 1921, stockholders of the mill industry in cash more than half (22 1/2 per cent) of the entire par value of their stock, eliminating the stock previously given away in stock dividends. Why did not Pacific mills save part of the war profits, which Mr. Greene admits were 'abnormal' and spend it in maintaining wages in this post-war depression?"

"There is a known cause of the tendency toward the manufacture of fine goods in the south," the labor leader said. "Why? It is because southern capital wants profits from southern child labor and long hours. Mr. Greene mentioned that Pacific mills makes the same grade of goods in the north and in the south. It would be interesting to know what proportion of the finer goods made in the south is produced by northern capital putting its experience, as well as its money, into the southern industry, and thus helping to develop the very measure of southern competition which it talks about."

"Mr. Greene says: Since 1901 the number of spindles in the south has increased 171 per cent; in the north, 23 per cent."

"True! But half of their southern spindles are manufacturing yarn which is shipped to northern mills for weaving into cloth. This giving northern mills some of the profit from southern child labor."

"Wages in the south are lower in dollars. But it looks to me possible that the southern cotton mill worker may be as well off with his lower wage, with no fuel to buy, practically no rent to pay, cheap food, a long growing season of rice, vegetables, etc. No English has been offering an advantage in shorter hours which means a good deal to the textile workers, but now the mill owners are doing their best to take away this advantage and to relocate the northern workers to the same exploitation which prevails in the south. If it develops that textile workers are better off in the south it will become the business of the union to tell northern workers to go south."

A similar warrant is expected from Woonsocket, R. I., where several breaks have been reported recently, and have been attributed to Sternberg. The police of that city are said to have concluded that Sternberg was the responsible party.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, April 27.—Initial dealings in the stock market today were characterized by further free selling of rails, oils, steels and utilities. Canadian Pacific lost 2 1/2 in the first few transactions and declines of 1 to 2 points accompanied the offerings of Illinois Central, Wabash "A," Mexican Petroleum, Bethlehem Steel, Kelsey Wheel, Manhattan Elevated and Pierce Arrow. Other reactionary issues included Pan-American Petroleum, American Tobacco, Wilson & Co. and American Ice. The market's stronger side was represented by New York Airbrake at a 6 point gain and Lake Erie & Western preferred, which advanced 3 1/2. Moderate unsettlement was shown by foreign exchange on overnight advances from Genoa.

Selling assumed wider proportions in the final hour. Leading rails, oils, steels, motors, equipments and shipplings then showed extreme losses of 2 to 3 points. The close was heavy.

TRIAL OF JUDGE PIERCE BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT

Examination of Justice Concluded Before Legislative Committee

BOSTON, April 27.—The examination of Supreme Court Justice Edward P. Pierce was concluded today before the legislative committee which is hearing charges seeking his removal. The judge was questioned at length in cross-examination as to his relations with W. Edwin Usher, an attorney, but did not change materially the statements he made during his extensive testimony yesterday.

At the close of his examination, Judge Pierce said he had tried always in his relations with Usher to pursue "straight, strict and upright" courses in every respect. He said his every word to Usher had been intended as an aid in making the Watson-Rose Conference and the Henry Wood's Sons Co. successful for the benefit of the heirs. Usher was counsel and manager for the two concerns.

Several witnesses then took the stand to refute testimony that Usher had caused large quantities of roses to be sent to Judge Pierce's apartments. The judge yesterday admitted the gifts of flowers, but denied that they had been sent in such quantities as had been alleged.

Atty. George M. Poland, one of the petitioners against Judge Pierce, called attention of the committee to an editorial in a Boston newspaper which he characterized as "grossly in contempt of the committee." He asked that appropriate action be taken.

Senator Leonard B. Hardy, chairman, said the matter would be taken under advisement.

Alfred Blum, junior at Judge Pierce's Brookline home during the time that the gifts of roses are alleged to have been made, said he never saw flowers in the judge's apartment in large quantities. He said he occasionally saw withered roses in the refuse barrel but in no such quantity as to differentiate the judge's apartment from others.

Taking of testimony was concluded at 12:45 o'clock this afternoon. The committee then went into executive session to set a time for arguments.

FIRE GUTS ATTIC IN RUTLAND STREET

The attic of the building numbered 35-37 Rutland street was badly gutted by fire this afternoon, while a lot of furniture stored in that part of the house was ruined by fire and water. The origin of the fire is not known, for when the blaze was discovered it was working its way through the timbers of the roof. An alarm was sounded from box 56 shortly after 2 o'clock and the quick work of the firemen confined the blaze to the upper part of the building. The furniture of William Levine on the second floor of the house was damaged by water.

TAXES ON FORMER GOVERNMENT LAND

Mayor George H. Brown today instructed City Solicitor Edward J. Tierney to probe into the question of whether or not the United States government should pay tax money to the city for land it controls in this city during the war years under the direction of the U. S. Housing corporation. The mayor is of the belief that this land was not entitled to the tax exemption given it. The land in question is in Belvidere and off Livingston avenue in the Highlands.

COUNCIL INSPECTS FIRST STREET OVAL

Members of the city council and the board of park commissioners went to the First street oval this afternoon to inspect the land to be purchased by the city from the Locks and Canals. The party was in charge of the chairman of the park board, Clarence M. Reed, who said some of the things the park commissioners have in mind along the lines of development of the area.

CHAIN OF ACCIDENTS

Follows Attempt of Man to End Life by Gas in Cellar of Boston Home

BOSTON, April 27.—When Franklin Denton crawled under the cellar of the Volunteers of America Home today, turned on two gas jets and then lay down to die, he started a chain of accidents that sent several persons besides himself to the hospital.

Someone in the home smelled the gas and a search revealed Denton, huddled in the cellar. He had left a note asking forgiveness for his act. A police ambulance was summoned. In turning a corner the ambulance crashed into a motor truck, injuring Michael C. Rose and John E. Maynard so severely that they were taken to a hospital. The impact of the collision sent the police ambulance skidding down the street, and the three patrolmen who were escorting Denton received bruises that required treatment.

Meanwhile, Denton, still unconscious, was hurried to a hospital in a passing automobile. It was said that he would probably recover.

General Alarm Fire at Cambridge

CAMBRIDGE, April 27.—A general alarm was sounded early today for a fire that started in the plant of Whittemore Brothers Corporation, makers of shoe polish, in the heart of the manufacturing district and in the rear of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology buildings. Firemen were obliged to fight the blaze with bags because water had no effect on the flaming materials in the mixing room, to which the fire was confined. The damage was estimated at $75,000.

Harding Joins Newspaper Golf Club

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The Washington newspaper golf club recently organized by golf playing correspondents in the capital, today received a formal application for membership from Warren G. Harding, "representing the Marion Star and mail address the White House." Enclosed with the application were three new $1 bills in payment of club dues for as many years. "I hope," he added, "to be able to show some of the younger fellows how to make a good score." In answer to the question on the application as to what clubs the applicant belonged, Mr. Harding wrote: "Probably all of them."

DOG WITH RABIES BIT POLICEMAN

Officer Frank Murphy of the police motorcycle detail is undergoing a rabies scare, all on account of a dog capture a short time ago.

A week ago last Sunday Officer Murphy was sent out to round up a dog which was cutting up in a certain district in Lowell, and succeeded in capturing the dog and bringing it in. In the process, however, he received a bite on the back of one of his hands. Dr. Sherman killed the dog and sent its head to the division of animal industry of the state health department, and the officer had his hand cauterized and felt that all was at an end, as far as the dog was concerned.

Today, however, a report has been received from the state house, announcing that the dog was affected with rabies, and the officer is doing a great amount of worrying as to the probability of his own infection.
